

PUPILS' ITEMS

Who said Easter eggs?

We are all glad Easter is coming.

The potatoes are growing fast in the garden.

The farmers are hard at work seeding the summer crop.

They are painting the new part of the small girls building.

All the blacksmith boys were sorry to see Mr. Melson leave.

The sewing room girls expect to go for a picnic next week.

The sixth grade are glad to see Peter Seltice back in school again.

Justina Jack is one of the best house keepers in McBride Hall.

Mr. Cooper and his boys have been over in Polk Co. after some trees.

Geo. Howard and Frank L'Heureux are through planting the carrots.

Do you notice the change in the woods? They are beginning to get green again.

The boys are busy hauling plaster from the middle-sized-boys' building.

Mr. Westley, and his boys are pretty busy plowing and getting the garden ready.

The girls' basket ball team went up to Salem last Saturday to have their picture taken.

John Benson led the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Wednesday. His subject was, "Influence."

The girls of McBride Hall are all sorry to have their matron Mrs. Theisz go away but they all hope that she will have a pleasant time.

We are anxious to get out on our school gardens, and learn how to plant, hoe and weed.

Annie Evans is a very nice dressmaker and will soon be in the first class of dressmaking.

Our base-ball team is hard at practice on their nice smooth ground in front of the two new barns.

Sallie Boswell had a very pleasant trip to Salem Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Chalcraft and daughter.

The A, B, and C, companies are hard at work drilling before breakfast and before chapel in the evening.

Stella Fiester and Mary Campbell are working at the laundry and are getting along nicely with their work.

Mr. Cooper's lawn boys went for a picnic last week who report having had a good time especially Carl Geffe.

Eugene Anderson is getting to be quite active with his tools in butchering. We hope he will carry his trade through.

The carpenters are busy repairing the large boys' home, and the boys are staying, for the time being, at the new barns.

Rosie Winslow has a very beautiful dress for Easter, which she made herself, she is one of Miss O'Here's best dress-makers.

Lavina De Vault is getting to be quite an expert in making button holes, and hope she will continue to do as well in the future.

Mrs. Campbell says she is proud of the fact that the girls that speak against the Excelsior's are from her grade. Not because she thinks they'll win, but to think they are brave enough to speak against the eighth grade boys.