

E O C H S

Sun shine.

Base ball.

"Be there like a duck."

The band boys are practicing eagerly.

"Cut that out." Walking on the grass.

Prepare for the coming oratorical contest.

Tracy Hatch was our visitor on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck were in Salem on Monday.

Miss Dohse was in Portland Saturday on business.

Mrs. Teabo and Mabel McKay were in Salem Tuesday.

581 pupils were in attendance at Chemawa last quarter.

Joe Shiltz spent a few days at Chemawa visiting friends.

Mr. Putman has been repairing the locks in McBride Hall.

Miss Hutchinson has just been initiated in the Eastern Star of Salem.

Mr. Cox went to Eugene, Oregon, to look after his property, Monday.

Preparations are being made for Easter Sunday by everybody this week.

Eugene Williams has been working in the plumber shop for sometimes.

Miss E. Newcomb has returned to Willamette University to resume her studies.

Mrs. Soltice, mother of Peter, left for her home in Idaho on Monday morning.

Work is being rapidly done on the remodeling of the Medium-sized-boys' home.

Engineer Leon Parker is in charge of the steam heating of the school house this week.

Miss Elizabeth Francis, of Eugene, the new S. P. R. R. agent at Chemawa boards at the mess.

Charley Payne was dyeing last week in the tailor shop. He feels better now that it is done.

Pickering Chalcraft is one of the members of a small boys' base ball team of Willamette University.

Miss Lucy Jones, our favorite clerk, went to town Monday to purchase enough eggs for Easter day.

Send us items and patronize our advertisers—show that you are interested in your school paper.

Mrs. Campbell instructed the Nonpareil Glee Club which appeared Thursday evening.

In the carpenter shop, this sign is conspicuous: "Gentlemen will not spit on the floor, others must not."

Who said that the McBride Hall girls can't play base ball? Can you show me a girl that can beat Hazel Ferris at batting?

Julia Selatsie was the leader of the Y. W. C. A. last week Wednesday evening her subject being, "Life without self-interest."

Orson Bell was initiated Friday in the Woodmen Lodge of Salem. He says that the goat didn't buck like the Montana broncos.

Mrs. Cox made some doughnuts and gave all the girls a treat as they passed from the dining room last Saturday. "Many thanks."

Mr. Bohlander, Mr. Henderson and others from the school attended the lodge of Modern Brotherhood of America Friday evening.