

PUPILS' ITEMS

We were visited last Tuesday by a little rain.

Katie Brewer has made a very pretty dress for herself.

Louisa Murray is making a dress for Alice Williams.

Tuesday morning the eighth grade. A class wrote home letters.

Chemawa was visited by a little shower Tuesday afternoon.

Company B and C are enjoying their stay at the new barns.

Mr. Bohlander said Wallace Wilson is one of the best milk boys.

Leon Parker is an active member of the third team of base ball.

John Benson was out visiting last Sunday afternoon at Hayesville.

Miss Luedke has been giving us some interesting talks on Thursday evening.

The painters have returned to the shop to start the summer's work a rolling.

Albert Meacum, an ex-pupil of Chemawa, came here for a visit last Monday.

What kind-hearted girls buried a little bird back of the dining hall Sunday morning?

Bert Leggett is working on the dairy. He likes to work there and is one of the best boys.

Peter Casey, who has been working in the plumber shop, has been transferred to the farm.

Mrs. Campbell is teaching her pupils a song about Chemawa, and they are well pleased with it.

The band boys went out on the ball ground to practice marching and playing last Monday evening.

Minnie Howard is now working in the laundry, she likes her work very well but likes the dining hall better.

If you would like to hear soft, clear baritone and bass solo apply to Eugene Williams or Peter Seltice.

As soon as the weather clears up, Miss O'Here and her dress makers are going down to the river for a picnic.

The pupils will commence their work on the gardens sometime this week. They will all try for the "blue and gold."

We are planting strawberries in the garden. Mr. Westley said there is going to be a lot of strawberries this summer.

Leon Parker is in charge of the water-pumps in the tank house and does his work well, and always keeps the tank well filled.

Chemawa intends to have a good base ball team here this season; so "you'll have to hurry" if you want to keep up with the team.

The baker boys are certainly doing good missionary work by staying up all night and baking bread for the San Francisco sufferers.

Louise Herman a former pupil, whose home is in Alaska, was married recently to Mr. Davis a young Simpsian owner of gasoline launch.

Chemawa is glad that her baseball team has won the first game of baseball that they played this season with the Salem High School team.

Neilie Shepard is still working in the sewing room, and we hope she will be a good little dress maker, before she leave the sewing room.