

PUPILS' ITEMS

We are sorry to have two of our employees leave.

We will play the Dallas baseball team here Saturday.

Lee Evans is painting the kitchen. He likes to be a painter.

Lillie Patton is now working in the dining hall. She likes it well.

Nellie Shepard is going to make her sister Enima a pretty summer dress.

Mary Pablo is working in the dining hall. She is one of the best workers.

Mr. Brewer and his force of boys blasted seventy-three stumps last Monday.

Little Ruth and Sarah Brewer went to town Monday to have their pictures taken.

Joe Corrasco is getting to be a good driver. He goes to town with the fliers.

Miss Jane Evans is very busy these days sewing for different people on the grounds.

Monday Mrs. Teabo took a number of girls to town with her. All had a very nice time.

Mr. Putnam and his force of boys are working at screens for the hospital and other buildings.

Some of the members of the Salem Y. M. C. A. give a fine entertainment last Friday in the chapel.

Some of the eighth grade pupils were out planting seeds in their school gardens after supper last Monday.

Essie Reed is making a pretty doily for her-self she does lovely pieces of fancy work in embroidery, drawing work and lace-making.

Mr. H. E. Mann came down Tuesday evening to visit his family.

Martin Sampson is becoming an expert with his violin. Certainly he plays good music.

We received a pleasant visit by Leon Parker at the printing office Wednesday morning.

The plumbers have begun to dig a ditch leading to the barns to furnish them with water.

Jessie LaBreche spends most of her spare time in making her sister, Millie a raffia basket.

Miss Gertrude Brewer took Miss Miller's place in teaching school while Miss Miller was away.

Mr. Swartz's force are hard at work hauling the stumps in the eastern portion of the school grounds.

Lizzie Galbreath read to us about the capture of a convict recently, at the school garden Tuesday evening.

Mr. Woods and his boys are getting out window sills, door frames and plinth blocks ready for the medium size boys' building.

It looks as if the school gardens will soon be in good shape, the way the pupils of the different grades are working just now.

Mr. Brewer and family moved Tuesday morning into the rooms of the upper floor of the printing office. Now his present office is in Mitchell Hall.

The girls of McBride Hall are quite anxious for their matron, Mrs. Theisz, to return from her trip in the east. In a few weeks more we shall see her back and around on the grounds again.
