

Miss Harold is now acting as nurse.

John McCush is becoming a good barber.

Zenas Beach proves to be an experienced gardener.

We were sorry to have our nurse, Miss Getchell, leave us.

Who said Roderick Murchison could not blow the bugle?

The paint shop has been closed for some time, but is now open for business.

The painters have finished painting Messrs. Cooper's and Winnier's carriages.

Mr. Campbell went to Portland Thursday morning and returned in the evening.

We were all sorry to see Julia Harvard leave.

Miss Gage, accompanied by Mrs. Chalcraft, visited the printing office Thursday evening.

Felix Evans quit the baker shop and is working for Mr. Cooper on the lawns. Felix is a good worker.

LaVina DeVault is very anxious for the sewing room girls' picnic so they can have a good time at the river.

A number of pupils and employes went to Salem to witness the baseball game between Willamette and Chemawa.

Harry Mercier one of Mr. Westley's teamsters is preparing a piece of land for corn adjacent to the school building lot.

Two new boys from Warmspring have been here for sometime, and the boys are pleased to have them around as they are bright.

Oscar Boy, while at the singing class last Tuesday, made such a fine sounding with his bass voice that he was requested to sing a solo.

George Washoe treated the eighth grade B class while they were hoeing grass from the roses around the school building.

Last Tuesday evening, during the singing class, Frank Booth and Wm. Beach each sang a vocal solo which we all enjoyed. We hope to hear them again in the near future.

The painters have plenty of work on hand now. All the frame building to be painted. In the wagon line they have the school carriage and other wagons made by the wagonmakers.

The members of the Junior Y. M. C. A., of Salem, Oregon, gave an enjoyable entertainment at Chemawa last Friday evening for the benefit of the San Francisco sufferers. Boys from ten to sixteen years of age gave a fine exhibition of their gymnastic work, and others gave musical selections which were well received. Mr. Hatt, of the Salem Daily Journal, who brought the boys down, also took part in the program. He surprised and pleased us all by his clever handling of the dumbbells.

Miss Frances C. Gage, Secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association for the States of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, visited Chemawa this week. On Wednesday evening the pupils and employes were entertained by the association, and the leading feature being an address by Miss Gage on "My Work in Turkey." Miss Gage is a very interesting speaker, and as she spent many years in that country as a missionary, she was able to talk from actual experience. The pupils were very much interested, in the story of a young Armenian Maiden who was converted to Christianity.
