

LOCALS

Fidelity.

Are you a weather-vane?

The seventh grade is working at interest.

Mr. Brewer did some heavy blasting Monday.

Miss Booth has resigned her position as stenographer.

Mrs. Lovelace is acting matron in the middle size boys' home.

Tillie Souvigner had the highest average in the 7th grade for April.

The eighth grade is working hard and rapidly in planting their garden.

Claudia Spink spent a happy Sunday at Chemawa with her papa and mamma.

Miss Miller returned from her farm in Horse Heaven, Washington, Monday evening.

Mrs. McClellan left Chemawa Monday night, and her many friends were sorry to see her go.

Monday was such a beautiful day that Mr. Chalcraft gave a number of girls permission to go to town.

A letter from Lulu Beach, a former pupil of Chemawa, states that she is attending school in Bellingham, Washington.

The sixth and seventh grades are both hoping to have the best gardens; but it is going to be a hard thing to accomplish.

Mrs. Mann accompanied a crowd of young people for a picnic in the woods Sunday. They all reported having had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell visited the temporary quarters of the boys in the new barns Sunday.

Miss O'Here is now getting ready to make curtains for McBride Hall, which the girls will all appreciate.

Peter Seltice will have two gardens. One with the sixth grade and the other with the seventh. Look out! he'll get the first prize.

Mr. Brewer's dog, Sport, was right in the midst of all the blasting this week, but seemed to lead a charmed life as he escaped unharmed.

Eva Woods and Claudia Spink visited parents and friends here Sunday after which they returned to school in the Sacred Heart Academy.

The employes and pupils were visited by Miss Irene Campbell who asked for assistance for the San Francisco sufferers. $100 was obtained for the purpose.

A letter from Miss Noble at Carlisle says that Mrs. Theisz visited there and was pleased with what she saw, and also that everybody was pleased to meet her.

We were all surprised to find out that Mr. Hatt, of Salem, is such an athlete. The way he used the dumb-bells, at the entertainment made us "sit up and take notice."

The following postal card, from Donald Seibert, who has been taking a post-graduate course at Stanford and who visited his college chum, Donald Campbell at Chemawa two summers ago, explains itself: Escaped from the ruins of Encina Hall. San Francisco all gone. Stranded in Oakland but alive.