

Asa Bagnell says that if he got a dollar for every note he wrote he would have thirty-five cents.

Rodrick Murchison is learning pitching, and Jasper Randeau, catching. Both are buglers.

Asa Bagnell says that chickens must certainly roost high, since mice begin to climb trees, ask David Graham.

Alice Williams, Nellie Sloan, Bessie Boles, Louisa Murray, Millie LaBreche and Mary McLeod enjoyed reading the CHEMAWA AMERICAN exchanges last Sunday afternoon.

Saturday the first and second teams played an interesting game of ball. The first team showed up better than usual in their batting. If some of the players would not try to star so much it is a certainty that the team would be greatly strengthened. The second team played unusually good ball in fact some of the players could easily rival some of the first team players. Enthusiasm was equally divided.

NOTES FROM MCBRIDE HALL

"Latest news," What is it?

Hurrah! for the blue and gold. McBride Hall girls are sure to get it.

Nellie Sloan received a beautiful birthday present from her brother, James.

Bessie Boles made a delicious birthday cake for her friend, Nellie Sloan.

Louisa Murray went to Salem Monday to purchase herself a new spring dress and hat.

Whispers have been heard that John Benson spends all his leisure time working for the blue and gold.

FOUND—A lovely tie-pin, owner may have the same by giving proper description. Apply to Nellie Sloan.

It was said that Miss Bowman and McBride Hall girls sleep well at night since criminal Smith has been captured.

The music furnished by the four young ladies of McBride Hall was very melodious and was enjoyed by all who were present.

A birth-day party was given in honor of Miss Nellie Sloan's eighteenth birthday in McBride Hall last Tuesday evening. Games were played, and after a short program dainty refreshment were served; and a very pleasant evening was spent. The guests were: Bessie Boles, Louisa Murray and Alice Williams.
