

COCHES

"Success."

Get busy! Get spirit.

Where's our base-ball team?

Mrs. Theisz is expected home next week.

Mr. Mann left for Washington last Sunday evening.

A number of boys went to Salem Tuesday to see the circus.

"Chemawa Park" is a very popular place on Sunday afternoons.

Roses are beginning to appear in the button holes of the boys' coat.

The band concert Sunday evening was very much enjoyed by the pupils.

The track team has been organized and Charley Payne was elected captain.

Chemawa will soon look like Paradise when the lovely roses are all in bloom.

Mr. Campbell taught the juniors' and seniors' Sunday School class last Sunday.

Mrs. Brewer presented Mrs. Campbell with a beautiful bouquet Monday evening.

Miss O'Here was surprised to receive a present from one of her friends last Monday.

The social given on the lawn last Friday evening was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mr. Joe Brignone, an ex-pupil, accompanied by Mr. Joe Teabo visited the printing office Wednesday. While in there he subscribed for the AMERICAN.

Our boys met their defeat last Thursday with smiling faces. And we are proud to say that our boys played an excellent game and it happened that luck was in favor of Willamette.

Col. Hoffer of the Capitol Journal and family visited Mr. Chalcraft and family last Sunday.

Last Sunday, Mrs. Lovelace, Gertrude Brewer and a number of girls went to Old Chemawa and had a picnic.

Lizzie Galbreath and Julia Selatsie accompanied by Mrs. Cloutier visited the printing office Tuesday morning.

Miss Leudke gave a very profitable talk last Thursday evening. Her subject was "Cells." From this we learned that proper care must be tended to our body cells.

One of the neighboring farmer's cows got run over by the ten o'clock train. The front, north-west corner post of the depot was thrown in by the sliding of the animal from the track.

Mr. George H. Ramsey, teacher of Mission Bottom School, Oregon, spent Sunday in Chemawa visiting his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cox. He returned on his wheel by the beautiful moon light.

John Benson waited at the employable Wednesday, taken Robert Davis place. Benson is an experienced waiter as he used to work in one of the restaurants in Portland about three years ago. He can also cook a little.

Above the entrance of our printing office there are living two happy birds. The board serving as support of the gutter has a hole in it about three inches in diameter, and is hollow inside. In there the two fortunate canaries found a permanent happy home which they have occupied now for about three years. At present they have some young ones and we at times can hear the chick, chick of the little ones when their parents come with food.
