

PUPILS' ITEMS

Who said strawberries?

Keep the good work up boys.

Who said our boys couldn't play ball?

Tillie Souvigner is working at the mess.

Ask Martin Sampson if he likes "spuds."

The gardeners are busy planting potatoes.

William Cauther gave a bass solo last Monday night.

The gardeners are planting potatoes west of the school.

Alfred Lane is now captain of the second baseball team.

Jack Simmons gave some of us girls a treat of strawberries.

Mr. Swartz is getting a piece of land ready to plant some alfalfa.

Clarinda Biodgett ate Sunday dinner with Mr. Farrow at the mess.

Maggie Jerry, one of our new pupils, has entered the third grade.

Eugene Anderson works in the butcher shop and he is getting along fine.

Simon Charles, who has been ill for some time, is now going to school.

Russell White Bear went to Portland last Monday returning the same day.

Mrs. Teabo's cornet solo at the social last Friday evening was enjoyed by all.

Dora Gray and Lizzie Frazier are the champion checker players of McBride Hall.

Alden Clark and Frank L'Heureux have the best looking teams on the farm.

Mr. Cooper is dairy boss during Ben. Bohlander's absence. Mr. Cooper makes a good "boss."

The band practiced in the gymnasium last Monday. The boys are improving in playing marches. We hope the boys will keep it up and not cheat any more.

John McCush is practicing on third base. He is getting to be a first class third-base-man.

Peter Seltice wrote an interesting story in regard to the sixth grade school-room last Friday.

John Benson surprised the bat by making a hit, in the base-ball game Saturday afternoon.

We all enjoy these showers that we are having. It makes the things in our school gardens grow.

Some of the visitors to the strawberry patch say in a few days we will have a nice mess of big berries.

Mr. Lovelace and some of the boys on his detail are putting in the lights in the Medium Sized Boys' Home.

Dora Gray and Sarah Pierce were busy last week working on the flower beds around the McBride Hall.

Myrtle Johnson and Anita McLaughlin favored the girls Tuesday with a vocal solo. Their voices blended sweetly.

Chemawa's baseball team is making a success in playing ball this year. We wish them good luck all through the season.

The girls in the fifth grade all enjoyed study hour last Monday. They were so busy that the time passed away too rapidly.

Nora Mann has been having work done on her teeth in Salem for the last two weeks, and is glad to say she will soon be through.

A number of McBride Hall girls have formed a sewing circle—that's right girls make use of every minute and the hours will take care of themselves.

Last Sunday afternoon the two Lowry girls were playing the guitar and mandolin, which were harmonious and enjoyed by all who were present.

Mr. Hatt, of Salem Journal, conducted the evening services last Sunday. His subject was "Beginning." From this we learned that a good beginning brings good results.