

LOCALS

We are having cold weather for May.

Miss Eva Woods spent Sunday at Chemawa.

Miss Harold is making the hospital look very neat.

Mr. and Mrs. Teabo now afford a horse and carriage.

Zenas and Jerome Beach are on the orderly staff at present.

Miss Irene Campbell is going to have a fine tennis court.

The sixth and seventh grades enjoy writing compositions.

The tennis court at Mr. Campbell's cottage is about completed.

Mr. Teabo purchased a set of single driving harness from the school.

Phillip Warren returned to school from Grande Ronde on Tuesday.

Mr. S. J. Owen, of Portland, was the guest of Mr. Campbell on Sunday.

Thomas and Nannie Irridell were the two small pupils admitted last week.

Mr. Campbell went to Portland Sunday evening on school business.

Robert Casey, of Portland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace on Sunday.

Francis Newcomb came home from Willamette and spent Sunday with her mother.

Miss O'Here, Lizzie Galbreath and Jessie LaBrecche were in Salem on Wednesday.

Ethel White and Hazel Ferris invented a paper telephone last Sunday morning. They both seemed to enjoy talking through it.

Miss Elizabeth Keaton is filling the position of assistant clerk at the school temporarily.

Mr. Enright, of Salem, formerly the school tailor, visited friends at Chemawa on Sunday.

Martin Sampson's nasturtium plant, in the 7th grade classroom, is full of beautiful blossoms.

Mrs. Emma Coffey, of Vancouver, Wash., visited her sons Willie and Ira one day this week.

Several friends have received souvenir postals from Miss Gertrude Brewer who is at Tacoma visiting relatives.

Misses Johnson, Johnston, Luedke and Mr. and Mrs. Cox drove to Salem Sunday evening and attended services.

Mrs. Howard, who has been visiting her children, returned to her home at South Bend on Monday morning.

Benjamin Bohlander was called home last Saturday on account of the sudden illness of his wife at Guymon, Okla.

Hallie Chalcraft makes a fine little hostess. She entertained some of her friends at a dainty tea during the week.

Mr. Campbell's little fox terrier, "Polly" was in to visit the sixth grade classroom Monday, but Mrs. Campbell sent her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer and family are occupying the rooms above the printing office during the remodeling of the boy's building.

Mr. Hatt and Mr. Forbes of Salem conducted the Sunday evening meeting. Mr. Hatt gave a strong talk on the evils of cigarette smoking.

Abraham Hudson, a former pupil, drove over from Grande Ronde and purchased a wagon made in the Chemawa wagonmaking department.