

Lloyd LaBelle has just finished a coat for Ray McCleod.

Charles Bardwell is getting to be a good blacksmith.

Mary McDaniels is one of the housekeepers in McBride Hall.

Ellen Tohets has been doing some beautiful bead work lately.

The tailors are glad to see Michel Wilson back in the shop.

The girls of Mc Bride Hall are going to make new carpets for their halls.

Irene Peone is back in the sewing room after working in the dining hall for some time.

Nellie Davis was promoted to the first grade in dress making—the most advanced.

John Miles is through harrowing the new potato patch behind the school building.

Helen Harnden is now working in the hospital and she does her work very nicely.

I stay at McBride Hall now and I think it is a very nice place. I like to stay there.

It has been whispered that Violet Edwards is making some beautiful fancy work for herself.

Robert Davis says that he is going to make the eighth grade picnic the best time they ever had.

William Beach is getting to be a good shot with a rifle. He has killed two snipes at the distance of 100 yards.

The second baseball team expects another scalp in their belts this Wednesday, from the Ramblers at Salem.

Mary McCush who has been working in the hospital for about a year is now detailed in the sewing room. And we all hope she will soon be an expert dressmaker.

The rain has done our gardens good.

George Crane is a new member of the band.

Katie Henry is a good cook and also a good dressmaker.

The plumbers are busy laying pipes to the new barns.

Grace Beaver is now working for Mrs. Campbell.

The pupils of third grade are getting ready for a play on June 14.

Paschal George, went to Woodburn last Monday to see his friend.

Carl Geffe has been detailed to the engineer and plumbing department.

Last Saturday the boys had lots of fun hunting one of the school deer that got away.

John Peazzoni is missed very much by the boys of Mitchell Hall. We all wish him a pleasant trip.

Mary McCush spent a very pleasant Sunday afternoon out walking with her two brothers and Miss Dohse.

George Washoe has gained many friends among the boys and girls but he will lose some of them when the roses are gone.

The floor girls in McBride Hall are very busy this week sewing carpet rags for commencement. We need about five hundred yards of carpet for our floor.

We heard that Robert Davis will be one of the delegates that will represent the Y. M. C. A. of Chemawa at the Y. M. C. A. Convention at Gearhart, Ore.

Every thing is being put in readiness for the Fourth of July as the wagons and hacks are being repaired, so there will be no break down on the road when the band boys and base ball team are on their way to Falls City, Ore.