

"Cut this out, nonsense."

Mr. Reasor made a trip to Seattle on business the fore part of the week.

John Benson's oration on Tuesday evening will not be forgotten. It was fine.

Miss Hutchinson shipped two boxes of strawberries to her mother at Seattle, last week.

Mr. Cooper gave a very instructive talk last Thursday evening on dairying—butter making.

Miss Brewer and Miss Herald walked out to the home of the latter Monday afternoon, returning with cherries and other good things to eat.

Gus Bowe chop is becoming to be a very good pressman. He understands how to fix the impression screws and to produce satisfactory press work.

Miss Hutchinson heard the baccalaureate sermon preached at the Methodist Church in Salem by Dr. Coleman to the class of 1906 of the Willamette University.

Is it possible that only five girls of McBride Hall subscribe for the "American"? Where is your school spirit girls? How about the Mitchell Hall boys? Are they more loyal?

Calvin Darnell is learning rapidly in setting type. Now he is able to set up 800 ems per hour. Considering the time he has been in this department his improvement is wonderful.

The game last Friday between our second team and the Ramblers, of Salem, was one of the most interesting games ever played by our second team. The result of the hard struggle was 6 to 13 in favor of Chemawa.

Mrs. and Miss Gerding of Astoria, Oregon, accompanied by Mr., Mrs. and Miss Chalcraft visited the printing office Thursday afternoon.

Leon Parker and Eugene Williams are to be the star performers in the field meet commencement day. They both say that they are going in the mile run also the high and broad jumps. Williams is an old time athlete while Parker is young and very promising in his practice improvement daily.

Every one was disappointed at the social the other evening because Peter Sel-tice and Eugene Williams did not appear on the program and give their new speciality. We would have been pleased to hear Peter give his new song "hit" of his own composition "Stub" and Eugene's representation of an Indian doctor driving out evil spirits.

The race track is now being put in proper condition, and will be ready for the ambitious athletes of the school. We can safely say that the members wisely elected the genial Chas. Payne as their captain. As a leader and his standing as an athlete is too well known for further discussion. It will not be Capt. Payne's fault if any records are not broken or equalled.

The Following is the program given at the social last Tuesday evening:

1. Recitation "Last Days of Pompeii" Bessie Boles
2. Song William Beach
3. Recitation "Noble St. Bernard" Bessie Chiloquin
4. Indian Song Martin Sampson
5. Recitation (a) "How did you Die?"
(b) An Oration John Benson

After the above program ice cream, stawberries and cake were served. Also various games were played.