

PUPILS' ITEMS

Examination.

Beautiful weather.

Sunshine after rain.

Another victory (8-0).

Say, did you get any strawberries?

Anna Miller is a good dressmaker.

The sixth grade's gardens are growing fine.

Violet Edwards is making a skirt for herself.

The Indian name of Chemawa means swamps.

Ask William Beach how to pronounce dictionary.

The sunshine is very welcome after our late rain.

The next every day talk will be "were you promoted?"

The plumbers are at work at the small girls' home.

These sunny days remind us of the old harvest days.

The question is, "Whats going to be doing on the Fourth?"

The girls of McBride Hall are busy sewing carpet rags.

The choir is practicing a selection for commencement.

Sam McCush is practicing hard every evening for a mile run.

The eighth grade pupils are patiently waiting for their picnic.

Joe Charles made two new stools in the bakery the other day.

Helen Harnden and Ollie Inman are detailed to the kitchen in the hospital, and Annie Jesson and May Henkle are the dining room girls.

Julia Selatsie is making a beautiful navy blue dress for herself.

The eighth grade pupils began their examination last Thursday.

Mrs. Theisz is very busy getting carpets woven for McBride Hall.

"Will I pass?" This is the most frequent question heard at present.

Caroline Mercier has been promoted from the fourth B to the A class.

What's the fuss and hurry about? Commencement is drawing near.

If you want to hear good singing go to Frank Cox and Jerome Beach.

We are having fine weather at Chemawa. The rainy season is over.

Esther Napoleon favored her many friends by singing an Indian song.

Mrs. Theisz drove to Hayesville on Tuesday morning on school business.

Floyd Hayden is working in the laundry and he is a very good worker.

Lester Spencer proved himself a good base ball player last Saturday afternoon.

We all wish the first team good luck when they play with Multnomah tomorrow.

Alden Clark must have a good trainer by the way he goes around the race track.

It has been heard that Mrs. Theisz is going to have a carpet rag social this evening.

Mr. Westley has been busy the last few days shooting gophers by McBride Hall.

Mr. Chalcraft and a few students are busy straightening everything in the Commissary.

Harry Long left Thursday for his home at Fort Jones, California, where he will spend his vacation. We all hope to see him back again.