

Grace Dimore now works in the mess.
John Smith is getting to be a good law singer.

Silas Albert is getting to be a very good carpenter.

Mrs. Cooper's sewing room girls are sewing carpet rags.

George DuFault is one of the best farmer boys in Chemawa.

Mary McLeod made a very pretty white dress for Susie Duval.

A neat program of Flag Day exercises at the Tulalip School has been received.

Nellie Sloan stood the highest in her class during the final test. Her average being 97 5-6.

The Chemawa baseball nine defeated the Eugene team on Saturday to the tune of 8 to 0.

William Beach is getting to be an expert in playing the banjo and makes very good music.

Last Sunday some of the girls went for a pleasant walk and enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. Edwin Eells left for Portland on his way to his home at Washington on Monday morning.

Fred Irving is getting to be a good tailor. He says he is going to make an overcoat for himself.

Philip Sorahan and Michael Wilson are getting pretty close to the Chemawa record in high jumping.

The farmers are hauling vetch to the new barns. Mr. Swartz said he thinks both silos will be filled.

My, how Harry Queachpalma and Grover Colby did smack their lips and exclaimed, "It tastes like more" the strawberry short cake that a certain young lady just returned from school invited them to.

The first baseball team will play their next game on Saturday with the winged "M" from Portland.

Gus Bowe chop was promoted to bookkeeping in the printing office. Gus is a very bright and willing worker.

The boys and girls of fifth grade are proud of their gardens and all imagine their gardens are doing nicely.

The many friends of Frank Souvigner were very sorry to see him leave last Sunday, but we hope him a pleasant vacation.

Gus Benson expects to take part in the field meet this year, last year he put the shot 27 feet but this year he put it 30 feet.

The carpenters are very busy working on the medium sized boys' home getting it ready so we can move into it as soon as possible.

The governor of California declared holiday since the catastrophe at San-Francisco. Have been recently declared off, business is going on as usual.

If you want to see some good drawings go to the 4th grade school room. The B class has two good artists, one is Arthur Tyler and the other is James Evans.

Mr. Beck, our tailor, wanted to see the "type-lice" in the printing office very bad. He went in three times asking to see it. We will let him see it on the fourth time.

Tillie Souvigner is studying out of school, preparing for examination. That is the way to be, if all the girls are that kind they surely will have a better record than the boys.

The sixth and seventh grades are now making efforts to prove that their last ten months of schooling is not fruitless, by going through an ordeal termed "Final Test" in all branches of study.