

Don't look on the wrong side of life. Have a kind and pleasant word for McBride Hall girls in your paper. Don't publish all their faults, and perhaps more will subscribe. We have twelve girls who subscribe at McBride Hall. Who are the subscribers of Mitchell Hall, Large Boys' Home, Small Boys' Home and Small Girls' Home?

Several new names from McBride Hall have been added to our subscription list recently. Many thanks!—this evens up matters a little. Besides some of our best reporters belong to this building. We will not forget favors and acknowledge that McBride Hall girls are all right.

This evening a carpet rag social will be given on the lawn by the school building. This is going to be the best social of the season. All kinds of round games will be played after which the seniors will serve refreshments—ice cream, cake and lemonade. All invited to come and enjoy the evening. The band will be there to play for us with their new pieces.

Leon Parker, Albert Auberry and Alfred Lane invited George Washoe for a walk to a neighboring farm to buy some strawberries last Sunday. Opportunately, at the place where they made the purchase, obtained some sugar and cream, and thought it would be better to have the feast right there. George did not want to display his appetite before strangers; and told his companions how sorry he was for not eating as he ought to. Poor Washoe! We feel sorry for him but we believe he'll be wise next time.

Last Wednesday we were very much surprised to see a bear put off the train here which was for the school. It is a male bear and hope that in the near future we will have more bears.
