

LOCALS

Albert Pauline left for his home in Dixon, Montana, Monday.

Fine days at Chemawa, and many roses at the "rose avenue."

We all enjoyed Rev. Eells talk in the chapel last Sunday afternoon.

The second team will play the Tribunes a return game Saturday the 23rd at Dallas.

Miss Hutchinson has a very pretty cream colored dress, we are all anxious to see it on her.

Mrs. Theisz is the best checker player in McBride Hall. It is fun to see her play and beat her daughters.

Maude Hamilton who has been a pupil of this school for a number of years left for her home in Alaska Sunday.

Addie Cameron and Margaret Lowry are back in McBride Hall again after staying at the small girls' home for a week.

Last Saturday evening Miss Herold gave a party at the hospital for Edith Milne who left on Sunday for her home in Alaska.

Mrs. Emma Miller was here from her home at Kennet, Cal. She visited her nephew Johnny Miller and daughter Lola Morton.

Miss Eva Woods is home on her vacation and is enjoying Tennis playing with Miss Irene Campbell on their splendid new court.

The Italian laborers have been putting in the new rails at Chemawa. They are a jolly crowd, and like to hear the Chemawa band play.

Clarence Cooper, having completed his school year in Salem, is on a camping trip near Turner with the Junior Y. M. C. A. of Salem.

The class finished the Standard Arithmetic, required to finish the course of this school, and are now working practically outside of the book.

Mr. Campbell writes that he has been in an earthquake in California. No damage done although things were considerably shaken up.

Myrtle Johnson, one of the most promising pupils of the seventh grade, left for her home at South Bend, Wash. Monday for her vacation. She is missed by her many friends at Chemawa.

Rev. Edwin Eells, of Union, Washington, an old friend of the school paid us a visit Sunday returning Monday. Sunday afternoon he gave us a talk on "Success in life," which was very interesting.

While going up to Salem last Friday, we all thought Miss Jones would get left so we began to inquire where she was going to sit. Never leave Miss Jones behind or you will miss lots of fun if you do.

Mr. Forbes' talk on Daniel and his three friends, last Sunday night, was especially fine. He showed how any one who stood bravely for the right in spite of what others said or thought, will be like Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell received the wedding announcement of Mr. Chauncey Y. Robe and Miss Lillie Springer of Tacoma, Washington. Mr. Robe was at one time a pupil at Carlisle and is one of the prominent influential and progressive Indians in the United States. His many friends wish him and his bride unbounded success and happiness.
