WHAT I WOULD LIKE TO DO IN VACATION

Edward Curl, fourth grade

First of all I would like to spend my vacation at home. While home I would work on the farm, repair fences, haul wood, for the winter, milk the cows morning and evening, and go out fishing and hunting in spare time.

There are plenty of ducks and other large birds on the bay.

In the summer, fall, and winter there are plenty of salmon in the river, four kinds of which I will name, silver side, chinook, calico, and steel head which the fishermen fish for and sell at the cannery in the fall of the year.

It is fun to see the fishermen go out at night drift along when the tide is just right. At low water they set nets. Some go out and drift on the bar but I have never tried that.

Albina Pierce, fifth grade

Well, the first thing that I wish I could do after commencement is to go home for vacation. And go out for a camping trip on the Siskiyou Mountains some time in August or September and camp near the Lakes for about two weeks or more. It is very beautiful up there in the fall when the leaves on the tree's begin to turn red and yellow, and there are also many different kinds of beautiful flowers.

When we stand on one of the highest peaks which seems to pierce the very sky we can look for miles and miles around in every direction into the beautiful valley of California and Oregon. The houses seem to be mere specks in the distance.

After we get through looking over the country from this high peak we descend down the side of the peak which is situated near a beautiful lake that you can see clear down to the bottom, and then return to our camp tired and hungry.

As there are many beautiful and pleasant things there to look at, there are also many dangerous snakes, such as the rattle-snake, copper-head and king-snakes. You have to be very careful and not go where it is very rocky or where the brush is very thick for fear that you may get bit by one of them. And then I think after we have returned to our homes again we would feel like getting our things ready and going back to school again.

Now, that is all that I wish I could do this coming vacation, as it has been some years since I have been out for a camping trip with a jolly crowd.
