

PUPILS' ITEMS

Who said raspberries?

Mr. Cooper has been busy setting out plants.

Examination in the eighth grade was finished Thursday.

Mr. Spink was about the first one to the fire drill Monday.

Andrew Bill is very much missed from school by his many friends.

Miss Josie Mercier was visiting her sisters and brother last week.

Andrew Bill left for his home at Auburn, Wash., last Monday.

McBride Hall girls are glad to have new carpet for commencement.

Edward McClellan is now out of the hospital after being sick for some time.

The base ball last Saturday was the best game played on the Chemawa field.

Silas Albert is getting to be a very fine carpenter, you ought to see his work.

The printers all feel happy because their new press just came in last Monday.

We all enjoyed the carpet rag social last Friday and hope to have another one soon.

Mr. and Mrs. LaChance and Mr. Pishette paid us a visit for a few days last week.

Mrs. Theisz went to Hayesville last Monday and brought back with her 93 yards of carpets.

Eight girls gave a little dinner last Sunday and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon among themselves.

Mrs. Cooper spent Saturday and Sunday at Turner's Camp Meeting and returned Monday morning.

Peter Casey and Asa Bagnell received a beautiful bouquet last Saturday after the exciting baseball game.

We are glad to hear that Frank Sorahan is doing well at his trade, blacksmithing, in Toledo, Oregon.

James Sloan left for his home Wednesday morning at Ronan, Montana. He was called away quite suddenly.

During the week several families from the Grande Ronde Reservation, were visiting their children at this school.

We are all glad to see Mr. Campbell back again. He has brought 16 children from California, five girls and eleven boys.

Levi Sortor surprised us last Saturday at the ball game, by the way he took the bat and sent the ball rolling. Stay with it Levi.

The tailor boys had an examination last Monday. George Scott's average was 82. He stood the highest and Mr. Beck is very proud of him.

Alice Williams is getting to be quite a good piano player judging from the sounds of the piano while she is playing that's right "little" Alice stay with it.

Leon Parker, Alfred Lane, George Washoe and Albert Aubery went to Mrs. Liphart's Sunday afternoon and had strawberries and cream and we hope they enjoyed it. They say that Washoe ate more than he ever did.

The Seventh Grade worked hard at their gardens on Monday and the result was most gratifying. If the gophers and the small boys will keep away from the school gardens Chemawa will have reason to be proud of this year's work.

Some of the girls make it a point to ask some one to take them walking every time an employe comes in sight. This constant begging and teasing becomes very tiresome and really lessens the number of walks the girls get instead of increasing them. Use judgement, girls.
