

PUPILS' ITEMS

Fire crackers!

Warm weather is the cry.

Hurrah for the Fourth of July!

Some boys drilled without coats last Monday evening.

The sixth grade were singing an Indian song Tuesday.

Miss Hollister the new nurse, arrived on Sunday morning.

Julian Fernandez, one of our printers, is working in the mess yet.

The blacksmiths are all glad to see Mr. Melson back in the shop again.

We are having exhibit work placed in the main hall of the school building.

On Monday last the heat was very great, it being 103 degrees in the shade.

John McCash likes to handle the "pi." John is a good pressman next to "Gloomy Gus."

Mrs. Campbell told us about her first day at school. The sixth grade pupils enjoyed it.

The fourth grade pupils sang a few songs on Monday morning which the sixth grade enjoyed hearing.

Calvin Darnell who entered the sixth grade recently is promoted to the seventh grade. We wish him success.

Mr. Putnam was busy last Monday putting up show-case and rack for various school room exhibit work.

Katie Henry and Odessa Dodson did some good cleaning in the sixth grade classroom on Tuesday morning.

The sixth grade enjoyed Miss Alice Williams' talk last Monday when she told us about her first day at school.

The painters have completed the interior of the medium sized boys' home and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

The new boys that Mr. Campbell brought from California are getting along fine. They say that they like it here at Chemawa.

Captain John Smith of the athletes in Mitchell Hall, room twenty-two, is putting his men in good condition, especially George Williams.

The girls are busy sewing pretty gowns for commencement, and from looks of things some of our girls will appear very neat during the great occasion.

Irene Peone of the sixth grade drew a pretty map of the Panama Canal. On Monday, she drew an artistic mountain scene on the blackboard.

Mrs. Campbell is kept busy practicing with the choir who will take part on commencement. We are looking forward to some excellent music.

The second team, with long honored chain of scores have added another link to their honors. We are proud of them and hope they will keep the good work up.

THE PAINTERS—well, when they complain of anything there will be "something doing" among the others. We have the coolest shop on the grounds if our floors are dirty.

Tracy Beck the manager of the track team in Mitchell Hall, room twenty-two is feeling very ill but his athletes are doing well. Thomas Holden proved himself the best in many ways.

A large number of girls accompanied by their teachers, went into the raspberry patch. The girls who like raspberries have found it more pleasant to stay at home than to pick berries on such hot days.