

LOCALS

Beautiful moonlight nights!

Hurrah for the Fourth of July, boys!

Miss Esson, of Eugene, is the guest of Miss Cox.

This is pretty hot weather to work in the gardens.

Mr. Chalcraft and Pickering went to Falls City on Tuesday.

Ice cold lemonade, ice cream, sherbet etc. are in high favor.

We don't hear any one asking for steam heat these days.

Mrs. Campbell is busy drilling the choir for commencement.

Joe Dillstrom made a fine copy of Gibson's "The Eternal Question" for Mrs. Campbell.

We had a band concert and dress parade during the week. Mr. Brewer conducts the dress parade.

Katie Henry and Odessa Dodson keep the book closet in the sixth and seventh grades' room very nice and neat.

"Polly" Mr. Campbell's little fox terrier is the mother of four little puppies who look exactly like their mamma.

Harry Queachpaha, Albert Payne, Leon Parker and Joe Lane are new members of Chemawa's first base ball team.

Philip Sorahan, Robt. Cameron and Sarah Pierce received the highest standing in the final examination of the 8th grade B class.

Last year's work which decorated the walls of the sixth and seventh grades' room has been taken down and new work will be put up.

Mr. Herbert Campbell has had the posts and benches painted a bright red in the tennis court, which greatly improves its appearance.

The roses are blooming, but not in the great profusion they were a week ago. By commencement the bushes will be full of beautiful roses again.

Quite a number of girls went to town on Tuesday morning. We suppose that they were after fire crackers though as they were a specially patriotic crowd.

We heard some nice singing last Monday night. It sounded lovely, and the beautiful moonlight night was made more beautiful by the sweet music. We think Alice Chalcraft and Claudia Spink were responsible for it.

Mr. Chalcraft sent around very strict orders in regard to taking care that no fires occurred on the Fourth of July. Every employe is held responsible to a certain extent. We were all careful and use our fireworks with discretion.

Mr. Forbes gave us a good talk about Moses on Sunday night. He took the letters of his name and gave us characteristics of the great patriarch.

Meekness
Obedience
Steadfastness
Earnestness
Saved

Miss Harold who has been acting nurse for some time at the hospital, returned to her home at Glen Harold Monday afternoon. Misses Ella and Katie Brewer and Mrs. Lovelace accompanied her. Miss Harold made many friends at Chemawa and her faithfulness and ability as a nurse were greatly appreciated.
