

Miss Irene Campbell spent the Fourth of July with friends in Salem.

Miss Bowman was rather overcome from the heat on the Fourth.

The Sixth and Seventh Grades are putting up exhibit work in their room.

James Jefferson, a former pupil of this school, was here Wednesday and Thursday visiting friends.

Mrs. Campbell spent her Fourth of July in Portland and Vancouver, Wash., with her son, Herbert.

The band and the first base-ball team left here Monday to Fall City to help the people there celebrate the Fourth, and returned Thursday evening. Merry times have been reported from the boys.

Mrs. Clumcraft says it was delightfully quiet at Chemawa on the Fourth. All the pupils and nearly all the employes were off celebrating so those who remained on the grounds enjoyed the unusual quiet.

We had a grand time on Fourth of July. All the pupils were up at half-past four in the morning preparing for the day's festivities. After breakfast the girls started for the river for a picnic and the boys for Salem to take part on the grand parade. All returning at half past four, happy but tired. After the "big dinner" the fire works began and lasted until half-past nine.

Jane Evans is sewing for Miss Irene Campbell. Jane is an excellent dress-maker and the work she has done for the employes has given great satisfaction. We feel particularly proud of her as she learned her trade at Chemawa. We have a number of girls who have been industrious in the sewing room and who have taken advantage of all the seamstress has taught them who will be able to work at their trade and make a good living when they leave school.

O. R. & N. AND S. P. BOOK TELLS ABOUT THIS COUNTRY

If possible, the Passenger Department of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company and Southern Pacific (Lines in Oregon) has surpassed itself in the 1906 issue of its new publication, "Oregon, Washington, Idaho and their resources."

The purpose of the publication is to attract homeseekers and investors to the Pacific Northwest and this publication is undoubtedly the best messenger that could be sent by residents of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to their friends in the East and Middle West.

Beautiful half tones, printed on superb book paper, make the publication, which contains 88 pages and a map of the section, a work of art, but far superior to the typographical make-up is the content of the book. Under many heads covering practically all the resources of the states are short, pithy stories of what has been accomplished, not what might be done, but actual facts and figures accompanied by names and addresses of well known farmers, who are daily laying aside an income that would be a fortune to an Eastern Agriculturist.

Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent of the O. R. & N. Co. and S. P. Lines in Oregon has favored the editor with a copy of this publication and informed him that readers of this paper by sending the names and addresses of friends in the East and four cents in postage for each address, may have the book promptly mailed to the address given.
