

PUPIES' ITEMS

The girls are busy picking berries now-a-days.

Julian Fernandez left for Seattle Tuesday morning.

Dora Gray is making herself a green silk dress.

Mattie Hayden has been detailed in in the hospital.

Mrs. Lovelace is making herself a beautiful cream silk waist.

The girls from certain grades have been picking berries lately.

The plasterers were repairing the walls of Mitchell Hall last Monday.

Mr. Brewer returned from Tacoma, Washington, on Sunday morning.

Miss Evelyn Woods left for her second trip to Chautauqua, Monday evening.

Butter every day at the pupils tables. That is a better record than that of last year.

Mr. Leupp, accompanied by Mr. Chalcraft, left for Portland, Monday morning.

Albert Aubery, Eugene Williams and Richard Long left for Chautauqua Monday.

We are expecting our friend, Lulu Beach, to come to Chemawa at almost any time.

Dr. Fryer and Miss Hollister, the nurse, treated the hospital girls with ice cream last Sunday.

Mr. Loomis, our ex-disciplinarian passed here to Portland on Tuesday morning train.

A number of girls accompanied by Mrs. Teabo went to Salem, Monday to hopping.

We are having fine cool days now.

Carl Geffe is one of the best workers in the engineering department.

Thomas Holden is one of Mr. Swartz's best hay pitchers.

Geo. DuFault is one of Mr. Swartz's scientific hay makers.

Mary McLeod is making a white dress for Nellie Sloan.

Ask Alice Reece what made her look so "blue" on Monday.

Lloyd LaBelle is going to take lessons from Joe Dillstrom in drawing.

Commissioner Leupp gave a splendid talk to the pupils last Sunday night.

Ask Iva Dodson how to trim finger nails. She is going to start a manicure parlor.

Mr. Brewer makes berry picking very interesting for the boys when he is with them.

The sewing room girls made about 100 table cloths for the pupils dining hall this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Galbreath, of Portland, visited their nieces Annie and Lizzie Galbreath.

Lizzie Galbreath, Jessie and Mellie LaBreach while in Salem on Monday visited the convent.

Nellie Sloan accidentally stepped on Lizzie Galbreath's hand and caused a great deal of pain. That's all right Lizzie, you may have a little rest.

Ivy Dodson made some beautiful pictures, and some fancy Spencerian hand writing on the blackboard Tuesday afternoon.

Peter Seltice and Paschal George, left for Gladstone Park on Tuesday. We wish them a pleasant time during their stay.