

BELATED ITEMS

Edward Green has returned to school.

Is it true that hop picking is coming next?

George Horn, what do you mean by "dash?"

Eva Simmons left for Grande Ronde on Tuesday.

Dora Gray is the best artist in the eighth grade.

Parker, how did you like the honey sent by A. G.?

Alice Williams made a beautiful white dress for herself.

Grace Dumore made a nice black dress for Mary McCush.

Ask Jane Evans what happened to the blackberry jelly she made.

Ella Brewer was the guest of Alice Williams on Tuesday night at McBride Hall.

Dora Gray proved herself to be an experienced carpenter while making the class motto. She did all the tacking without bending a tack.

Miss Irene Campbell, Miss Eva Woods, and Mr. Herbert Campbell returned from Chautauqua on Sunday evening. They say they had a splendid time.

What do the boys in room 22, Mitchell Hall, call their athletic club? We would like to know through the "American" whether if it is called, Smith and Beck Club.

News reached school of the marriage of Miss Ollie Downie a former pupil of Chemawa. Her many friends extend the heartiest congratulation to the newly married couple.

A number of Chemawa people went to Salem on Saturday evening taking in a play, the "East Lane."

The race-track has been re-smoothed again for the field sports which will be held on Monday next. We would like to see our little Calvin "Butt-in" in the pole vault contest.

The class motto has been put up beautifully. The work done by Richard Long and the girls of the Juniors. The seniors extend a hearty thanks to those helpful hands.

The girls who take part in the "Jack O'Lantern Girl" are busy making their dresses for commencement. This is going to be one of the features among the musical number.

The boys in room 22, Mitchell Hall, went with the inspecting party last Sunday morning. They say they counted how many girls they saw peeping in and out during the inspection.

Little Marie Mann went with her mother to pick berries last Monday and picked 18 boxes in a half of day. Marie is only four years old, but made a record that is impossible for a child of her age.

Mr. Chalcraft and Paschal George went to Portland on Wednesday morning. Paschal returned to Chemawa, accompanied by Paul Dirks, while Mr. Chalcraft continued his journey to the north.

All the printers received Postal Cards from one of their fellow-printers, Julian Fernandez, who is working on the U. S. Transport, Buraside at Seattle Wash. Julian is a good faithful worker and had distinguished himself as one of the best printers while here.