

GENERAL NEWS

Mr. Mann is here visiting his family.

So, McCush ate too many apples, eh?

Miss Dohse and Miss Parrish are rusticiating at Lansingville.

The corn will be ready for the pupils' dining hall by next week.

Mr. Geo. J. Fanning arrived at Chemawa the latter part of last week.

Dr. Geo. J. Fanning of Fort Belknap, Montana is successor to Dr. Claude P. Fryer former physician at Chemawa.

Mr. Swartz and his force of hay-pitchers has been out for a picnic for the last few days.

Hellen Harnden is working in the hospital dining hall and she likes the work very much.

Paschal George will soon become one of the best soloist if he keep on practicing in singing.

The checker board, the flinch cards and Louisa never have a rest nowadays at McBride Hall.

Grover Colby is making a stand for the heater which will be put up by the power-house soon.

Lloyd LaBelle a pupil of this school, left for his home in Vancouver, Wash., last Monday morning.

We are glad to welcome four new pupils to our school whom Mrs. Galbreath brought from Montana.

Sam McCush and Orin French are fixing wagons for the school in the blacksmith shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Teabo will be home from their vacation by the first or the second of September.

Violet Edwards must have some very rushing business in Salem as she visits there so frequently.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox returned from their vacation Thursday, August 18, and entered on duty next day.

Mr. Westley's force is about through weeding the potatoes, then they will work on preparing the prune boxes.

Alice Reece is in charge of the hospital kitchen during the absence of Mrs. Teabo, and proves herself a very good cook.

Odessa Dodson is worrying about the blindcat they had in the hospital kitchen. It disappeared the other day and cannot be found.

Mr. Jayme is learning how to cook over a camp fire. Favorable reports are gathering as to his progress in the culinary line.

The wagon makers and carpenters are oiling the girls' lavatory which has been renovated during the past few months.

A number of employes left on Monday morning for Tacoma to attend the Pacific Coast Institute to be held there from 20th to 25th of this month.

The McBride Hall girls, the dining hall girls and the kitchen force made about 1600 biscuits last Thursday for supper which was enjoyed by the pupils.

Miss Miller was in charge of the pupils kitchen during Mr. Cox's vacation, and by her new dishes pleased the pupils. She seemed to be an experienced cook by the way the dishes were served.

Among the ex-pupils of Chemawa, met in Seattle by Mr. Chalcraft, on his recent trip, were Silas Moon, foreman of the boiler room on the Alaskan steamer, "Cottage City;" Haynes Dewitt, quartermaster on the same ship; Frank Hamilton, fireman on the Alki; and Charles Bolton and Silas Milne, firemen on the steamer, "City of Seattle."

J. J. Spencer an ex-pupil has a good blacksmith shop at Kelso on the west side of Cowlitz River, he has just completed a new shop 24x60 ft. well fitted with new and modern tools on the east side of river. Jas. Jefferson who left school this summer is with him and their intention is to run both shops. They are both energetic and progressive young men.