

On Vacation.

The Chemawa employes spent their vacations this summer as follows. There may have been some others, but the American scribe failed to get the news—

Mrs. Doherty spent her vacation with her sister in Seattle.

Miss Luedke reports having an enjoyable time at the seaside at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Teabo spent their vacation visiting friends at Grande Ronde.

The vacation period of Miss Johnston was spent at her home in Cushing, Okla. with her parents.

Mr. Lovelace returned from an outing in southern Oregon where he camped, fished and hunted.

Miss Dohse says that she gained many pounds of flesh during her outing while she was camping in Haysville.

Mrs. Campbell returned from her outing which was spent with her sons in Spokane where they are in the newspaper business.

Miss Jones after taking a dip in the briny deep at Newport spent the balance of her vacation rustivating with friends in the vicinity of Chemawa.

Miss Miller spent her vacation on her farm in Horse Heaven, Washington. She says there is no place on earth like Horse Heaven not excepting Chemawa.

Mrs. Cooper spent a very pleasant time with her children at Newport on Nye Creek during the first part of her vacation. The balance of the time she spent in the country near Chemawa.

Miss Francis Bowman spent her vacation enjoying the balmy breezes of Puget Sound. She was at Bellingham, Tacoma and with friends and relatives in Seattle.

Mr. Brewer was with Mrs. Brewer while at the Narrows.

Mr. Putnam spent his vacation time in the vicinity of Chemawa a little under the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox with their daughter enjoyed their outing at Minnsmouth and Dallas with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck had a very pleasant camping trip at Silver Creek Falls although it was a little late for trout fishing.

Mrs. Cloutier spent a part of her vacation in Seattle with friends and the balance of the time she was rustivating in the vicinity of Chemawa.

Mrs. Newcomb has returned from the sunny south where she spent her vacation, sojourning at San Jose, Cal. where she placed her daughter, Miss Francis Newcomb, in the California State Normal school.

Mrs. Brewer reports having had an enjoyable time while at the Narrows on Puget Sound where she spent part of her vacation. The rest of the time she spent at her home in Tacoma, and while there she entertained Misses Miller, Dohse and Mrs. Cloutier.

Mrs. Woods also enjoyed the briny surf-bathing at Newport which is said to be the best bathing on the Pacific Coast. The balance of her vacation she spent at Portland. Her daughter, Miss Eva, was with her at Newport. Mr. Woods spent part of his vacation with his family at Newport and the balance of the time he was knocking around through the cities of the Northwest, taking the trip down the Columbia to Astoria.

Miss Mary Olive Skipton of Salem, has been appointed Assistant Seamstress at Chemawa and is now on duty.