

PUPILS' ITEMS

Mary McCush is an expert dressmaker.

We are glad to see Mrs. Campbell back again.

Mr. Westley and the boys have been busy drying prunes.

Mr. Swartz has been sick for the last week, but is better now.

The girls in the sewing room are busy making uniforms.

David Risling is working in the blacksmith shop he likes it fine.

We are all glad to have school again after enjoying our vacation.

Fifteen barrels of humpback salmon came to Chemawa Wednesday.

We are all glad to see Mariel Billings back to school again after her long visit.

Henry Darnell reported for duty at the printing office last Wednesday morning.

"Procrastination is the thief of time. Now boys and girls study hard for the coming year.

The many friends of Mrs. Spink were sorry to see her leave. We all wish her a safe journey.

Very near all the pupils of Chemawa were out hop-picking this summer. They picked in about eight yards.

Little Claudia Spink did not go to Klamath with her parents, but is attending the Sisters School in Salem.

The boys and girls are looking very well after their summer vacation. Now let us use good sense and keep well.

Joe LaRose and Zephyr Gardepi arrived from their homes in Montana last night and we are all glad to see them back.

Miss Johnston said that she is very glad to have her old pupils in the A class this year. And we are glad to have her for our teacher also.

School has begun, and we should get in and study because the time is soon coming when we will not have the chance to attend a school like this again.

We are expecting Alice Williams back to attend school. We hope that she will return soon as she was one of our best members in the literary society.

Nellie Shepard and Sallie Boswell worked for Mrs. Chalcraft during hop-picking. They took turns; Nellie went picking one day and Sallie the next.

Mr. Arthur J. Watkins has been appointed nightwatchman at Chemawa and is now Chemawa's night owl.

The AMERICAN greets its readers after a two months rest. The printers devil was asleep and got the date September 5 for October 5 on the cover of this issue.

Harriet Jones who went home last March was married on Sept. 1st to Levi Pembleton, a well-to-do store keeper on the Tuscarora Reservation. One hundred and twenty guests were present and the music was furnished by musicians from Niagara Falls, and the Tuscarora Indian band.

Mrs. Doherty was transferred from the Spokane Boarding School as Assistant Matron to take the place made vacant by the transfer of Miss Marie Johnson to Repua' California as field Matron. While Miss Johnson was with us for only a short time, yet she made many friends while here and her energetic methods made the school management regret she had to leave us although it was to her advantage.