

Jane Evans another one of our girls, is now cooking for the St. Mary's hospital at Albany.

The repairs to the Small Girls' lavatory are about completed and they now have one of the best lavatories in the service.

Owing to the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Spink, Miss Hutchinson, Miss Jones and Miss Preuss were promoted to higher positions. Miss Claudia Lynn of Salem, received the temporary appointment as Asst. Clerk in the office at Chemawa.

Albina Pierce who has been taking instruction for nursing for a couple of years, is now in the first year of the training course for nurses at the St. Mary's Hospital at Albany and her reports show that she is giving good satisfaction and getting along nicely.

The medium sized boys' building has been entirely remodeled from roof to cellar. The interior of the building has been torn out and remodeled. Hard plaster has been put on the walls and it has been made new throughout so that it is now as good as any building on the grounds.

The many friends of Miss Irene Campbell congratulate her upon winning the championship for Ladies' Tennis singles for Oregon, which was held under the auspices of the Irvington Club of Portland during the month of August. Miss Irene has a handsome silver cup as a token of her victory.

John Benson who was a member of the class of 1906 entered the Portland Journal contest for a scholarship and was successful in getting it. He is now a student in Whitworth College in Tacoma where he is getting a finished education.

His many friends at Chemawa congratulate him upon his success. While here he was always a leading spirit among the boys and was president of the Y. M. C. A.

William Blodgett, class of '05, is still employed in one of the largest tailoring establishments in Portland where he has been working for over a year. He has steady employment in Portland and is one of Chemawa's many successes. William holds diplomas from both the literary and industrial departments of Chemawa.

Cyril Morrisette who obtained his industrial education at Chemawa is now employed in one of the best harness shops in the northwest at Portland. The advantage of the Chemawa system is demonstrated in cases like that of Cyril. The school did not find him a place but he went out into life prepared and found it for himself.

It is with regret that the American announces the resignation of Mr. R. C. Spink as Chief Clerk. Mr. Spink was appointed Trader at Klamath Agency and he left the service for business reasons. What is our loss is Klamath's gain. Both Mr. and Mrs. Spink leave behind them many friends at Chemawa who regret to lose them.

Miss Vesta Essen and Mr. Elijah Stivers, friends of Miss Iva Cox, were married at Chemawa, September 12. The ceremony was performed in Mrs. Cox's parlor which was prettily decorated in green and white for the occasion. A number of friends were present and after the ceremony, the wedding party was served with dainty refreshments. The newly wedded couple left on the afternoon train for their home.