

BREVITIES

Basket-ball is beginning to engage the attention of our pupils.

Since the street cars run to Chemawa many of our people take the opportunity of attending church in Salem on Sunday morning.

Frank Rosenburg is still the principal assistant in the hospital and has become quite an expert in the dressing of wounds etc.

Mr. Spink ex chief clerk has an order in for two sets of work harness, which will be sent to him at Klamath Agency.

George, the deer, is getting to be entirely too familiar; he wants now to get his milk from the milk pans, not waiting to have it poured out for him.

Although we are having some rainy weather, the boys are still sleeping in tents; they are comfortable and prefer the fresh air of tent life to that of the hospital wards.

We are sorry to hear of Ethel White's accident and hope she will soon recover from it. She is at her home at Klamath Falls and while riding horse back down the mountain the horse stumbled and fell throwing Ethel and breaking her collar bone.

The domestic science girls prepared the following bill of fare on Tuesday: Breakfast—oatmeal mush, griddle cakes, coffee. Dinner—bean soup, beefsteak, mashed potatoes, stewed prunes, baked apples, coffee. Supper—beefsteak, fried potatoes, fried tomatoes, stewed prunes, bread and tea.

PUPILS' ITEMS

Amos Smoker is janitor in the school building.

Robert Brothers is getting to be a fine basket-ball player.

Joe L'Heureux is working in the harness shop, and is getting along nicely.

Alden Clark who has been home for some time has returned to school again.

The foot-ball boys are busy practicing for this year. We all hope they will have a good team.

The girls are all glad that Domestic Science has begun and all intend to learn a great deal about cooking.

We are all sorry to see Merl Poland leave Chemawa for his home in southern Oregon. But we all wish him success.

The Union foot-ball squad is practicing every day getting ready for the Woodburn game which will be played October 20th.

The seventh grade have been studying about tomatoes. They know how to make good sweet tomatoe pickles. The boys can make it as well as the girls.

Anita McLaughlin, Helen Harnden, Grace Barrett sang some popular songs Thursday evening, each taking very good part, one alto, one soprano and one tenor.

We are buying strawberries of Mr. Henderson now. They are grown in Mr. Beaty's place near here. Strawberries in October! That is pretty good isn't it?

We were sorry to hear that Orson Bell has not been well since he went home. He is coming back to Chemawa where he is never sick the climate here agreeing with him a great deal better than the climate of Montana.
