

BREVITIES

Miss Irene Campbell is attending the Willamette University.

Mr. Wm. Claggett visited the school Wednesday on business.

Cecelia Johnson is working in a hotel at Raymond, Washington.

Mr. Brewer left for the North Tuesday on business for the school.

Freight that should have reached us months ago, is now coming in.

Joe Wiggins is hustling around getting his foot-ball squad in action.

Wm. H. Lovelace, Engineer, resigned and his resignation was accepted.

Mr. George Lansing is employed temporarily until a dairyman is appointed.

The new washer and disinfecter is in the laundry and ready to be installed.

The second team was defeated last Saturday by the Union team by the score of 35 to 0.

Mrs. Chalcraft, Miss Preuss, and Miss Brewer attended the grand opera, "Parsifal," in Portland this week.

Mr. Chalcraft, during his recent trip to the Sound, met a teller of a bank who is an ex-pupil of Chemawa.

Paul Queachpalma last year's tackle is playing fullback for the Union team this year. Paul's weight is 165.

Mr. Teabo sold his cornet to Edward McClelland. It is a fine instrument and Edward is going to learn to play on it.

Mr. Henderson, Chemawa's Postmaster spent a week in the mountains hunting deer. We are all looking for a slice of venison.

Some of the larger boys and girls do not seem to like the taste of Cod Liver Oil; strange isn't it? The little tots don't seem to mind it.

A letter from Silas Moon gives us the news that he is in Tacoma working at his trade, blacksmithing, in the Northern Pacific Car Shop.

We are sorry to learn that Victor Johnson, who is attending Dartmouth College is ill with typhoid fever. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

The little deer is the pet of every one living in the northern part of the grounds. It follows people around like a dog and eats out of any one's hand.

If we take good care of ourselves, we will not have to ask the doctor and nurse to take care of us. A great deal of our sickness is caused by willful carelessness.

Some ladies who went to town on Saturday, were caught in the heavy shower on their way home and looked about half drowned when they reached home.

School is again in regular session with a full force of employes. The work of the Industrial departments is progressing and we hope they will soon come up to the highest standard.

We had a deer hunt at Chemawa this week. One of Chemawa's pet deer took it into its head to roam around the country. A searching party soon found it and returned it to the deer park.

On last Wednesday, Mr. Westley gave the girls a treat by turning them loose in the orchard and letting them get all the apples that they could gather, and clean up those that the gardeners had missed in gathering. The girls certainly did enjoy the apple feast.
