

PUPILS' ITEMS

Gideon Hanbury is getting to be a pretty good tailor.

Tracy Johnson is getting along nicely with the bass drum.

Josie Williams is one of the best girls in the sewing room.

The fifth A class had a very interesting lesson in physiology.

We are glad to have Matilda John back in school again.

We are all sorry that Nellie Boswell is sick in the hospital.

The Union team will play against the Reform School in the near future.

Mr. Melson is teaching some of the boys how to weld iron and steel together.

Anita McLaughlin is now working in the Dining Hall and likes her work.

Lulu Coonskin is now working in the laundry. She likes her work very much.

Theresa Young is now working in the sewing room and she likes to work there.

Alvina Dale is now working in the Hospital kitchen and she likes it very much.

We are all glad to see Mrs. Maggie (Downey) Kingdom again. She is here for a visit.

Mary Campbell is working in the sewing room, and she does her work very neatly.

We are anxious to have a good band this winter, as it adds so much to our pleasure.

Jennie Luke is now working in the domestic science and she likes her work very much.

We are all glad to see John Smith in school again, after spending his vacation at home.

The third and fourth grades will have their turn in the domestic science department next week.

They are putting lights in some parts of the grounds which makes a better appearance at night.

The girls are all glad domestic science has begun as they are all anxious to learn how to cook.

Chemawa has become one of the main attractions for the Salem people on Sundays, since we have the street car line.

We hope every boy who leaves Chemawa is well enough educated to earn his living in some good, honest, reputable manner.

Indian children are very fond of music. The singing of our pupils met with much praise from visitors last year. We can do still better.

Last Saturday the first football game of the season was played here at Chemawa between the Union team and the second team. Robert Brothers proved himself the star played for the Union team by his powerful line bucks.
