The kitchen detail has put up a large amount of various kinds of pickles for winter use from the big supply furnished by the gardeners this fall. The work has kept the entire force busy for two weeks during spare times and they are all thankful it is all done. Mr. Tibbets was fortunate in securing a tomato that was adapted to this climate and of less than an acre incredible amounts of them were picked. Nearly 300 bushel were taken ripe from the vines and served sliced on the table during September. In addition to this the kitchen force have put up in 10 gallon jars 127 gallons of ripe preserves, when cold weather threatened, the vines with frost all the green tomatoes were picked and sliced and pickled, making 120 gallons. These were also put up in stone jars. Of pickleleily 40 gallons more and the same amount of India relish. When the force began working on cucumbers they abandoned 10 gallon stone jars and put up five barrels. This makes a total of 347 gallons of pickles and five barrels of cucumbers.—Weekly Review

Dennison Wheelock arrived Saturday evening from Oneida, Wisconsin, with three large pupils who were promised places by Superintendent Peirce when there in August. Mr. Wheelock is organizing a band to play at the Jamestown (Va) Exposition next year. He left here Sunday for White Earth where his wife was staying.—Weekly Review.

R. W. Long, George Hogan and William Scotthead are students who have recently arrived to take the business course.—Indian Leader.

[Richard Long is a graduate of Chemawa class of 1905. While here he was a typo. He has since tried Hampton, Carlisle and is now at Haskell. Editor.]

The new cover for the Native American was designed by Mr. John F. Krebs painter at this school, during his spare hours. His model is Mohave-Apache of Camp McDowell. Those that do not admire our striking cover designs are cordially invited to submit some thing more characteristic of or appropriate to the Native American, and are assured it will receive careful consideration.—Native American.

The Chemawa American wishes to congratulate the Native American for the handsome and appropriate cover which appeared with their last issue—Editor.

The Carlisle Indian cadets gave the town a surprise this afternoon, and a pleasant one, headed by Major W. A. Mercer and the famous band of the school, they marched over the principal streets before going to the fair grounds. They marched exceedingly well and on the whole presented a fine appearance. Carlisle to a citizen were proud of them, and when the boys appear in the parade at Harrisburg on Thursday they will take a back seat for no soldier in that city. The officers were on horseback and a handsomer set cannot be seen anywhere.—Carlisle Sentinel.

Supt. Charles L. Davis of Fort Totton, N. D., has been appointed supervisor, and Supt. C. M. Zeidach of Kickapoo school, Kansas, succeeds him at Fort Totton.—Native American.

We see by the "Native American" that the blacksmiths down at Phoenix have put up 37 stoves, from which we presume that they have some cold weather there as well as in the rest of the United States except Willamette Valley.
