

BREVITIES

Mr. Cooper has been under the weather this week.

William Corrasco returned to the school on Wednesday.

Mrs. Campbell conducted singing class Wednesday evening.

The choir had their weekly practice Tuesday night, Mrs. Campbell, conductor; Miss Dohse, accompanist.

The Y. W. C. A. held their regular meeting on Wednesday evening.

The "Indian Friend" has been missed from our exchange list for several weeks past.

Mr. Campbell was in bed Sunday as a result of an encounter with Johnny Deer, Saturday P. M.

Edith Inman and Grace Dumore the mess girls take turns every morning making baking powder biscuits. The employees say they are very nice.

We notice in the daily press that Mr. John Steelhammer has taken unto himself a better half. Mr. Steelhammer is now in the milling business at Woodburn. He was an employe at Chemawa about three years ago.

In a letter from Mrs. Susie Bill, from Auburn, Washington she advises us that she is no longer Susie Bob but has married Andrew Bill. Both are ex-pupils of Chemawa and we wish them a prosperous and happy life.

The surplus cabbage has been made into sauer kraut. Mr. Westley tells us that all barrels and kegs available have been filled with the "German's friend" which strange to remark is eaten as fast as supplied to the "Native Americans" of Chemawa.

ATHLETICS

The girls' basketball team organized and elected Tillie Souvigner as captain.

Last Monday the basketball girls practiced a little while. They are all very anxious to play.

There was a great deal of noise in the gym. of Monday night. How those boys do practice basketball!

The Yakima and the pick-up team give an exhibition game of basketball last Saturday night, and it was one of the most interesting games. The Yakimas came out victorious. The score was 14 to 12.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting was held last Wednesday evening at half past seven o'clock at the usual place. The house was called to order by President Albert Garry, after a hymn was sung. Then Albert Garry led the house in prayer. Another hymn was sung. Next on the program was a talk on "The Work of Y. M. C. A." by Secretary Martin Sampson. The different systems of the Y. M. C. A.'s was mentioned, which was a benefit to the new and also to the old members. After the closing hymn of the religious meeting the rest of the time was devoted to business. Vice President Robert Davis brought up a question of organizing a basketball team. It resulted in having organized two enthusiastic basketball teams, elected captains and a manager. Philip Sooksit was elected captain for the first team and Mr. W. P. Campbell manager. Harry Quenachpalma was elected captain for the second team. The manager was not decided upon. The evening was closed by repeating the school "Watch Word". There were forty members present and many visitors. The intention of the members is to advance in both spiritual and physical work this year. Every young man is absolutely welcome to join.
