Thomas Andrews is getting along nicely in the band.

James Evans is making good progress in practicing on his clarinet.

Ignatius Bart entered the second football team. He is a good player.

Mr. Swartz gave a very interesting lecture on Monday night about hay.

Mr. Swartz says that Alden Clark is the best worker he has on the farm.

Joseph and Alfred Lane returned to school after having a long vacation.

Philip Warren accompanied by his father returned to school last Monday.

The Mitchell Hall boys are taking pains to keep their hall clean in every way.

Christine Lane is getting to be an expert piano player. She is learning very fast.

We are glad that Thanksgiving is coming so we will have a good turkey dinner.

We are expecting a number of pupils from the Flathead Reservation School in Montana.

Earl Dillstrom is going home this week for his vacation. We will be sorry to see him go, but he will come back soon.

Last week Rose and Anna Chalafone came from Wilbur, Ore. to enter the school here.

Matilda John is now working in the sewing room. She is proving a good dressmaker.

Little Earl Dillstrom is a great pet and the girls all hope he will come back to Chemawa.

Nellie Boswell is now working in the sewing room and she does her work very nice indeed.

Harry Jones says he is going to play very hard and next year he says he will make the second team.

Peter Lucier who was visiting the school for sometime returned to his home in Montana last Sunday.

I think our grade will soon have a lesson on radishes by the looks of the seeds Miss Miller is drying.

Almost all the girls in the small girls home subscribed for the CHEMAWA AMERICAN for their parents at home.

We are expecting John Peone, Charley Louis, Peter Seltice and Paschal George back to Chemawa in the near future.

A recent letter from Albina Peirce says that she is getting along nicely with her work at St. Mary's Hospital in Albany, Ore. We all wish her success.

We are glad to see new pupils come. We hope they will enjoy themselves here at Chemawa and make rapid progress in their studies.

Mr. Westley visited the seventh grade school-room on Thursday morning. He gave us some instruction in planting apple trees. We were all glad to receive good instructions from him.

A mistake was made in last week's paper when it stated that new officers were elected in the Y. W. C. A. for the coming year. The present officers are finishing their term which expires the first of March.
