

We have had a good yield of wheat this year, and an excellent crop of oats. There will be no buying of oats for horse feed this winter.—Progress.

Miss Josephine Rolette is still teaching in the Yainix, Oregon school. She likes her work there very much. Getting mail but once a week and going forty miles to a dentist are rather unpleasant features of the place, but she doesn't seem to be worrying over them.—Indian Leader.

Haskell's football team is not meeting with great success this year, but this is largely due to the fact that nearly all the players are new men and young. There is plenty of good material here, however, and another season there will be a different story to tell.—Indian Leader.

Rumor says that Sam Sturgis was married recently in Oregon.—Indian Leader.

RECLECT

The large boys of the school have organized a basketball team and intend to have a fast team.

The boys basketball team has been organized and Mr. Teabo elected as manager of the team and Levi Sortor as captain. It is hoped that a great number of our best players will try out for our school team. It is open to all.

The carpenters are going to organize a basketball team, Mosher B. Johnston was elected captain and Mr. Woods was elected Manager.

The farmers and the dairymen played a very interesting game of basketball last Saturday evening. The farmers winning by a score of 34 to 17.

COACHES

New pupils are arriving daily.

Lovely roses are still growing around the hospital porch.

Josie Mercier was here visiting her sisters May and Caroline this week.

We are tired of the rain, but glad we do not have floods like they have in Washington.

We saw by the Statesman that Lena Goodell, a former Chemawa pupil, was married last week.

Mr. Cooper who has been sick for the past couple of weeks and he has to stay in for a few days yet.

Mr. Philip Olney and wife, of Toppenish, Wash., spent several days at the school visiting.

The rains have prevented the finishing of the electric car line. We will be glad when our depot is finished.

Miss Iva Cox who spent several weeks visiting a friend in the country has returned and is looking much better.

Mr. C. W. Van Winkle of the Medical College, Willamette University spent Sunday with Mrs. and Miss Newcomb.

Bessie Boles sang a beautiful solo for the choir last Tuesday evening and this week we had a song from Louise Murray.

We congratulate our former Superintendent Mr. Potter, who writes that he is the father of a fine nine pound boy, born on the 14th of this month.

While Mr. Swartz was currying the big team one bit at the other and caused the horse to jump on Mr. Swartz's foot. This will lay Mr. Swartz up for a while.