

William J. Gardner, our left end on the football team, has received the distinguished honor of an appointment to West Point and is now preparing himself to enter the Government school. He will devote his time to study so that his entrance examination may be not only a credit to Carlisle but also to his native State, South Dakota, from whence he secures his appointment.—The Arrow.

The Chemawa American has the following true item in the issue of November 9: "Candidates for the hospital always wear a badge. They can be seen these rainy days in their shirt sleeves or without shawls and wraps on to protect them from the weather. 'I'm strong, I won't get sick,' they say when cautioned." At Haskell in cold or snowy weather you can see a number of candidates for our hospital.—Indian Leader.

The following is the order of the Thanksgiving service for next Sunday, November 25: Anthem, "Praise Ye the Lord;" announcements; Doxology; octet, "Praise and Magnify Our King;" Scripture reading; Gloria, "Give Praise;" prayer; Response, "We Praise Thee For Thy Tender Mercies;" hymn, "Praise Him! Praise Him!" sermon; anthem, "A Song of Thanksgiving;" hymn, "Coronation;" benediction.—Indian Leader.

There is a good deal of talk in Oklahoma of electing an Indian as first United States Senator from that state. Three men specially are mentioned in connection with the place. Charles Carter a young man of Ardmore who owns 12,000 acres of fine land and a lot of town property; Chief McCurtain and Chief Pleasant Portor. McCurtain is a giant fullblooded Choctaw. Portor is a big Creek. Chief Portor is regarded as an orator of ability.—Exchange

PUPILS' ITEMS

We are glad to see so many boys come to school.

Sarah Pierce is still the sergeant of the pupils' Dining Hall.

Steam! Steam! Steam! we want some more heat in Mitchell Hall.

The boys and girls were all reseated in the Dining Hall this week.

We are anxious to see the childrens' dining hall after it is all decorated.

We have many new members in the choir A solo is to be sing by a member at each choir practise.

Miss Ethel Parrish of Portland High school spent her Thanksgiving vacation in Chemawa with Miss Dohse.

Judging by the way Lena Charles played basket ball last Thursday evening, she is going to be the best player of Chemawa.

The girls in McBride Hall had an entertainment composed of songs, recitations, drills etc., in the sitting room last Saturday.

It is too bad that some of our poor girls have to wear thin waists this kind of weather. Let us take up a collection to get them something warm!!

Girls! do not wear thin white dresses in winter as it is not safe for your health and besides it looks like you are rushing the winter season. Summer will be here soon enough.

Mr. Chalcraft returned Saturday with five new pupils and Lester Spencer from Fort Simcoe, Wash., They were Eva and Adam Gunnyon, Annie Johnson and Anna Lewis.

John Peazzopi Wm. Mose, Wm. Major and Joaquin Meadows arrived here last Saturday from California. Johns old friends were all glad to see him back, especially the foot-ball boys.
