

Societies

Nonpareil

The Nonpareil Literary Society held its meeting in the usual room Thursday evening. The following program was rendered: Opening address, Bessie Chiloquin; vocal duet, Anita McLaughlin and Grace Barrett; recitation, Minnie Howard; pen picture, Irene Peone. Subject for debate; Resolved: That football should be abolished. Affirmative, Bessie Chiloquin and Matilda John, Negative, Ella Brewer and Lizzie Frazier. The judges decided in favor of the negative so football shall be encouraged by us hereafter.

Estelle Reel

The following program was rendered at the Estelle Reel Literary Society: Song, Alice Chalcraft; pen picture, Annie Souvigner; vocal duet, Emma Shepard and Jennie Schutzhagen; riddles, Nellie Shepard; music, Emma Shepard and Jennie Schutzhagen. Debate: Resolved: That we find more pleasure in the country than in the city. Affirmative, Nellie Barrett, Grace Beaver and Emma Cameron; Negative, Luella Ryan, Gussie Cameron, Jennie Schutzhagen. Three new members were taken into the society. The society was glad to have Alice Chalcraft back. Ruth Brewer was a visitor during the evening. Stella Fiesler makes a very efficient president. The Estelle Reels held their meeting in room No. 6.

Hiawatha

Friday evening the usual meeting was held in room 7. Owing to Secretary A. Lane's absence, A. Garry called the roll. After which twelve new members were enrolled.

Owing to the fact that this was the Club's second meeting, much of the time was spent in straightening up matters in regards to the future of the Club. So the debate was short much to the regret of the speakers. The question being "Resolved that Modern Machinery is detrimental to the working class of people." The Negative side of the question was upheld by Peter Seltice and Albert Garry and the Affirmative Joe Lane and Clarence Bardwell.

Although the debate was short it was interesting, and the negative won.

From all appearances, we are going to have a good club.

Charles Larsen spoke some encouraging words after which we were dismissed.

Excelsior

The Excelsior Literary Society met in their usual place and had a very interesting meeting. A football team was organized for the purpose of playing other society teams. Then the following program was well rendered: Recitation, Henry Oleson; jokes, George J. Williams; vocal solo, Martin Sampson; riddles, Harry Queachpalma. The subject for discussion was, Resolved: That the Plateau section is greater than the West Central States. The disputants upon the Affirmative were Harry Queachpalma, Joe Dillstrom and Ben Wilson while A. Goudy, H. Dillstrom and W. Miller upheld the Negative. The subject was open to the house and several would be on the floor as soon as one speaker would take his seat. The fact is that we did not have enough time to say all we wished to. The Judges were heard from before all could give their opinion of the subject. The affirmative won.

A Band of Mercy for the small girls in Small Girls' Building was organized by Miss Miller last Wednesday evening.

About thirty girls joined and after a short program rendered by some of the members the meeting closed.