

LOCALS

My, didn't the boys look nice at the Sociable on Thursday night.

Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Woods chaperoned the girls at the Thursday night Sociable.

Haynes Bateman dropped off the train from the South Thanksgiving day in time for turkey.

Mr. Weber of Salem conducted the service on Sunday night. We all enjoyed his talk.

Frisco Day, an ex-pupil of Chemawa is here on a visit. We are all glad to have him with us.

Mr. Campbell and Harry Jones left for Grande Ronde Sunday morning to bring back pupils for the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Royse Darrow of Salt Lake City, Utah arrived here on the 24th, Mr. Darrow being the new engineer.

Mrs. Walker of Pendleton, who has been visiting her children left for her home on Monday, taking Bessie with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rosenberger of Catella, Alaska had a pleasant visit with their children Frank and Jennie this week and expressed themselves well pleased with the school.

Miss Dohse who has been suffering with a thorn in her finger has had it removed and is now happy again. The thorn broke off and was imbedded in the bone and caused great pain.

Mrs. Chalcraft's sister, Mrs. Doctor Bristow of Portland and her son, Harland, together with Doctor Harry Flower, spent a pleasant Thanksgiving day at Chemawa with the Chalcrafts.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Nora Mann on her birthday last Tuesday evening. A very jolly aggregation of the young people of Chemawa spent the evening singing songs, playing games, and enjoying the refreshments.

Bessie Walker returned home with her mother on Tuesday of this week.

Peter Seltice, Paschal George, and John Peone returned to school last Friday as we were going to press.

John Peozonni returned to school last Saturday from Northern California, bringing with him Jonquin Meadows, William Mose and William Major.

Mary and Matilda, Gilbert and Charlie Michel and Micheal Anthony arrived at the school on Thanksgiving day from the Flathead Reservation, Montana.

Mr. Chalcraft returned last Saturday from the Yakima country, bringing with him Hayes Purns, Anna Johnson, Elsie Lewis, Adam Gunnyon and Eva. Gunnyon and Lester Spencer.

The following new pupils have entered Chemawa from Lapwai, Idaho—Julia Hoyt, Susie Moody, Viola Stuart and Mable Nesbit who went home this summer, returned with the party.

Chas Payne a former student of Chemawa, is now at Tekoa, Wash., working in a tailoring establishment. He is also a member of the Tekoa Orchestra. Charley is highly respected and well liked.

Mr. Hatt of the Oregon Statesman of Salem paid the school a visit Monday afternoon, and while visiting the printing office, he helped the boys and gave them some valuable hints, for which the boys were very thankful.

Mr. Campbell returned from Grande Ronde on Wednesday with Edwin and David Lachance, Adeline Robinson, Rosa Winslow and Eveline McCoy and the next day Harry Jones drove in with the second team containing Harriet, Maggie, Eddie and Marion Curl and Fred Dick.

Little Sarah Smith who had been ill a long time died on Saturday. The funeral was held in Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Burdette. Beautiful roses decorated the coffin. Appropriate hymns were sung by the pupils who all regret the death of this dear little girl.