

Societies

Niwahata

The meeting was called to order by Vice-President McCully, who presided, owing to the absence of President Davis. One of the features of the evening, was having each member answer to their name by reciting a quotation. After the usual routine business, the following program was given: Cornet Solo, Charles Larsen. Jokes, Louis John. Song, accompanied by accordion, Wm. Beach and Max Barnaby. Story, Peter Seltice. Current Events, Charles Bardwell. Essay, Ralph Allen. Song by Quartette, accompanied by guitar and cornet.

Estelle Reel

The following program was rendered in the Estelle Reel society: Song, Six Girls. Riddles, Annie Jessen. Recitation, Eleanor Zimmerman. Song, Mary Boles. Pen Pictures, Neva Souvigner. Music, Jennie Schutzhagen and Emma Shepard. Debate—"Resolved: That a cow is of more use to man than a horse." Affirmative, Luella Ryan and Annie Jessen. Negative, Ella Fleming and Neta Jones. Hazel Picard became a member. All the girls seem anxious to take part and the result is that very lively meetings are held.

Nonpareil

The Nonpareil Literary Society met in room number 9, Thursday evening. The following program was rendered: Current Events, Ella Brewer. Vocal Solo, Irene Peone. Riddles, Hazel Ferris. Resolved: That the printing press is more beneficial to mankind than electricity. Affirmative, Tillie Souvenir and Anita McLaughlin. Negative, Ella Brewer. Minnie Howard. The Judges decided in favor of the Affirmative.

Excelsior

The Excelsior society met in their usual place and there was a large attendance. The meeting was called to order by the President, after which there was a lively debate which was open to the house and participated in by many of the members. No business of special importance was transacted.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. had a song service Wednesday evening on account of many members being absent. Esther Napoleon presided at the organ. Next week we will have a rally meeting, and request every member to be present with plenty to say on her favorite verse in the Bible.

Sunbeams.

The Sunbeams met in room four as usual Wednesday evening and had very interesting meeting. Lavina De Vault of the Y. W. C. A. had charge of the evening. Next Wednesday Bessie Chiloquin will be the leader and all girls who wish are welcome to attend.

Girls' Band of Mercy.

The Girls' Band of Mercy met on Wednesday evening in The Small Girls' Home. All the members were present and four more girls joined. The meeting opened by singing, "The World Looks Very Beautiful," which was followed by "The Lords Prayer." A program consisting of songs and recitations was given by some of the members. A couple of the members spoke of some little acts of kindness that they had done since the last meeting. The meeting closed with repeating our Watch Word.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. met in their usual place last Wednesday evening. In opening we sang "Rock of Ages," which was followed by the "Lords Prayer," "Bringing in the Sheaves," was sung, followed by Roll Call. Martin Sampson then addressed the members upon the subject "Wisdom," which was very interesting as well as instructive. The question of organizing a branch of our association was brought up by Robert Cameron, and it met with favor. Some other important business was brought up and discussed. Eugene Williams who had returned to school came in and spoke encouragingly. He will lead the meeting next week, and his subject will be "Faith," every body invited. After adjournment a meeting of the delegates of the Y. M. C. A. convention at Eugene was held. Albert Garry was elected chairman of the delegation, of whom there were ten.