

BREVITIES

We have been having beautiful weather.

Miss Johnston gave the fifth grade their monthly average Friday.

Isreal Putnam resigned as wagon-maker and his resignation was accepted.

Belle Dillstrom stood highest in the seventh grade in the monthly average report.

The teachers' meeting held on Monday evening was very interesting. Mr. Campbell presided.

In a letter from W. J. Harris to the American we note that he is now at Juneau, Alaska.

We pupils of the eighth grade are sorry that George Washoe is not able to be with us during our examination.

The lavatory at the small girls' home is now ready for use and the small girls are all happy.

Mr. Beck now has 40 yards of warp in the loom ready for weaving. if the girls will furnish the rags.

Eugene and Charlie Williams returned to Chemawa on Tuesday to resume their studies after a long absence.

A letter received contains the news that Orin and Llewellyn French are visiting their sister in Bellingham, enroute for Chemawa.

Albert Garry, Louis John, Webster Hudson and Grover Colby are delegates to the seventh annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Oregon and Idaho, which will be held from 7th to 9th of this month at Eugene, Oregon. Those who are going for their own good and interest to their society are Joseph and Henry Dillstrom, Robert Cameron, John Upham, Leon Reinken and Edward McClelland.

ATHLETICS

Our football boys played well and behaved like gentlemen during the present season.

Willamette University defeated Corvallis at the football game on Thanksgiving. Score 4 to 0.

The boys first team of basket ball is practicing hard for their game with Dallas to-night at Dallas.

The first team will play a game of football with a team from The Dalles tomorrow on the Chemawa gridiron.

The Chemawa second football team has played their last game on Thanksgiving day, and disbanded for the season.

Mr Forbes was out from Salem to coach the girls basketball team last Saturday afternoon. He will continue to come every week on the same day.

The University of Oregon outplayed the Multnomah Club team on Thanksgiving and won the game. Score 8 to 4. The Oregon boys put up a wonderful game.

The game played between the first team and the Yakimas last Saturday night was quite interesting toward the last, the score being 43 to 20 in favor of first team.

The Item in last weeks AMERICAN stating that the first girls' basketball team was defeated by the second team was an error. The first and second teams were divided into two evenly matched teams for that game and of course one had to win. When it comes to representing the school in a game of basketball with girls of other schools the Chemawa girls will be heard from. They are ready to meet all comers.
