The sixth and seventh grades' quarterly examination will be held after Christmas.

Many new pupils are arriving at the school.

The Dalles football team say they were never treated so well any place as they were treated at Chemawa.

Mr. Chalcraft and Mr. Campbell talked to us on Monday night about the Navajo and Pueblo Indians. Mr. Campbell said he never saw a lazy Pueblo Indian, and Mr. Chalcraft said the same of the Navajo. They make beautiful rugs by hand for which they get very good prices.

Nora Van Pelt is making a beautiful blue dress for Lillie Patton which she will wear on Christmas.

Two Yakima boys came Monday morning, Joe Purns and James Olney. They like the school very well.

Mrs. Brewer gave her laundry girls a lecture on washing flannel clothes; and hopes they will always remember it.

Edward Ainsworth and Nichols Grabel are firing under the School building for this week.

A letter from Orson Bell, a former pupil of Chemawa, was received by Jas. Sloan in which he stated that he and his brother Abraham are in the hog business, and doing very well.

The seventh grade are glad to see Eugene Williams their old classmate back to school again.

John McCush, previously a "devil" in the printing office is getting to be quite a good pressman.

Pupils Items

Willie Corasco is now working in the engineering department and we all hope he will succeed in his trade. He is a very good worker.

Mrs. Cloutier received a very pretty post-card from Orville, California. The sender was Delia Clark who was graduated from Chemawa in 1905.

Both divisions of the eighth grade are getting practical Domestic Science so it does not matter if the boys are batchelors in future days to come.

We are all taking interest in Miss Brown's talks. She explains how the work should be done. Now girls this is a chance for us to get in and see what we can do.

Miss Brown is proud of Rosetta Peo because she is such a fine dressmaker. She cuts and fits her own dresses without any help and is a good worker and helper.

Grace Dumore makes fine cakes. She made some for the party last Saturday given at McBride Hall. Ask Mrs. Cooper who made the best cake last Saturday in domestic science.

Word was received from Tekoa, Wash. that Mr. and Mrs. Ignace Peone former Chemawa students have left for Tacoma Wash. where they will spend the winter with the parents of Mrs. Peone.

A "Band of Mercy" society was organized in the small boys' home Wednesday evening. The purpose of the society, to be kind and considerate of every creature was explained. Next the story of the "Bell of Justice" was told and then came the election of officers as follows: Henry Darnell, president; Frank Cox, vice president; Wm. Morgan, Secretary.
