Societies

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. had a rally meeting Wednesday evening which proved to be one of the best meetings held this year. No special girl led the meeting but as each girl responded with her verse she talked a while on it, thereby helping other girls who did not grasp her meaning. Lavina DeVault will be the leader next week. Esther Napoleon is the organist of the society.

Sunbeams.

The topic for the Sunbeams last Wednesday was "Charity" and each girl responded to roll call with a verse about charity after which Bessie Chiloquin gave a talk. Next week Lizzie Frazier will be the leader, her topic being "Hope."

Y. M. C. A.

Eleven young men were present last Tuesday evening at Bible Study led by A. P. Garry. The Y. M. C. A. meeting was held at the usual place, and was opened by a hymn. The house was led in prayer by A. P. Garry. Many members were absent. Another hymn was sung. Robert Cameron rendered his report of the convention at Eugene. Next meeting Martin Sampson will report of his point of view of the convention. A closing hymn was sung. We closed by repeating the school Watch Word.

Girls' Band of Mercy

The Girls' Band of Mercy had their meeting on last Wednesday evening at the usual time nearly all of the members being present. The little girls gave a very nice program nearly all responding when called on. These little girls are always ready to do their part to help our meetings and in arranging a program for the next meeting all the members on it are volunteers.

Boys' Band of Mercy

The Boys' Band of Mercy met at the small boys' home Wednesday evening. The time was spent in giving incidents that showed that some pupils appreciated what had been done for them in the past.

The Excelsior Literary Society was the first society or debating club to get out their colors or any emblem of their society this year. Their colors are blue and gold. A large gold colored ribbon with Excelsior printed in caps and literary society printed under it with beautiful ornaments on each end in addition to that the name of each member is printed in small type near the top. It is all printed in purple. At the top is a blue ribbon tied in a bow and fastened on with a neat little pin.
