

LOCALS

The lawn was visited by some robins on Sunday. Come again Mr. and Mrs. Robin, you bring us tidings of spring.

Prof. Von Jessen, Mrs. Hirsch and Miss Leona Hirsch visited friends at the school Sunday.

The Y. W. C. A. met Wednesday evening, and had an unusually interesting meeting. They had one of their rally meetings, anyone talking on any subject. Quite a number of different girls spoke some very helpful words. Louise Murray had charge of the Sunbeams that evening, their topic was "Peace."

Miss Ethel Parrish will be here to spend her mid winter vacation with Miss Dohse. Ethel will have about two weeks vacation as she stands so high in her daily recitations she is not required to take the quarterly examinations.

Alice Chalcraft has joined the choir.

Mr. Henderson is selling very fine apples at his store.

Mrs. Cloutier's mother who has been quite ill is better.

We were all glad to see Mrs. French on Saturday.

LEFTOVER ITEMS

Miss Harold was here in Chemawa visiting some of her friends.--L. B.

Miss Brown took her afternoon sewing room girls out skating. The girls greatly enjoyed it.--K. H.

Some of our new pupils are surprised to find snow and ice at Chemawa. Well we are surprised ourselves.

Little Phyllis Cooper goes in town to school every day and is getting along fine. She is the youngest pupil from Chemawa.

The friends of Mr. Dave McKillop were surprised to see him drop off for a short visit, one day this week. Mr. McKillop was assistant engineer at the school a couple of years ago.

Miss Irene Campbell's collie dog, Kola, died on Saturday and was buried the same day. Polly looked very sad during the burial. Miss Irene very much regrets the loss of her beautiful dog.

The following girls are provided with their own musical instruments: Edith Inman, Violin; May Henkle, Mandolin; Maude Lowry, Mandolin. Margaret Lowry accompanies them on the piano. Practice girls, and we'll have good music.

Mr. Bachelor who was engineer at Chemawa, wrote Mr. McLeod that he has left Cincinnati and has purchased forty-five acres of land on the out skirts of that city. He has one acre in grapes one-fourth of an acre in strawberries and two acres in raspberries and other fruits. He has six cows and a team and hogs and chickens. He states that he is working as chief engineer in the shops of the B. & O. R. R. Co. near his home. His address is station R, Cincinnati, O.
