The girls feel that they are greatly helped by the talk given to them by Miss Brown in the sewing-room.

Do not BORROW things from your friends without asking. There is an ugly name given to this kind of borrowing. The LAW has a punishment for it? What is it?

Be hold! The sun is shining these days, after a long period of dreadful cold weather. It is a treat to us not being accustomed to anything but rain or cloudy days.—J. J. S.

Visitors who come to our school are greatly impressed by the opportunities given our pupils. We hope no visitor will find a lack of appreciation shown by Chemawa boys and girls.

The CHEMAWA AMERICAN was glad to hear from Albert M. Meacum who is now at Four Mile, Oregon. Albert subscribes for the AMERICAN but he does not state in his letter what he is at present engaged in.

Girls, do not go into the presence of any one wearing a dirty dress. It is disgusting to see a greasy dress on a young woman. Soap and water are plentiful, careless clothes betray a careless mind and habits.

The AMERICAN was glad to hear that John Benson of the class of 1906, is now attending College at Whitworth, and to know that he does not feel satisfied with himself, unless he keeps in touch with Chemawa, which has done so much for him.

The AMERICAN always thought the girls of McBride Hall were courageous and liberal, but from an article handed in to the AMERICAN concerning the organization of the dramatic club, we surmise that there is some one in McBride Hall who is afraid that they cannot make a success of what they may undertake. As the article was unsigned, the AMERICAN declines to publish anonymous communications.
