Hiawatha

An interesting and pleasant meeting was held by the Hiawatha club last Friday evening. After the roll call was given the program which was carefully and well rendered being heartily applauded time after time, by the club members, who were perfectly satisfied, and adjourned somewhat elated over their meeting. Following is the program: Song, Wm. Beach; Comic Reading, Lee Evans; Recitation, Frank Coburn; Song, Hiawatha Quartette; Riddles Gus Benson; Violin and guitar duett, Max Barnaby and Michael Anthony; Current events, Robert Davis; Song, Thomas McCully; Story, Albert Garry; Closing song by Club. The feature of the evening was the singing of Wm. Beach and the Instrumental duett by Max Barnaby and Michael Anthony.

After the program was given some business of less importance was transacted after which we bade each other good night.

Nonpareil

The Nonpareil Society met in their usual place of meeting. The house was called to order by the president. Roll was called and minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Membership committee no report.

Two visitors Levi Sortor and Paschal George were admitted.

The following program was rendered: Opening Address, Ella Brewer; Song, Irene Peone; Recitation, Bessie Chilouquin; Jokes, Minnie Howard. A most interesting debate followed. The subject was "Resolved: That education is more useful to mankind than wealth." It was hotly contested on both sides but the judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The speakers were as follows Affirmative: Violet Berner, Anna Hauser, Negative, Lizzie Frazier, Anita McLaughlin. After the debate our visitors made very complimentary speeches to the Society.
