

PUPILS' ITEMS

Milton Godowa is learning very fast on his flute.—B. L.

Hattie Zadlath is the best speller in the fourth grade.—E. F.

As we advance in life we have the limit of our abilities.—E. I.

Josie Williams is now making Emma Pollock's uniform dress.—C. W.

Allen Walton is now firing under the school building this week.—J. W. P.

Mr. Campbell gave us a good lecture last Friday night on education.—A. D.

Geo. Washoe has been promoted from the rank of A. Company to first sergeant.

Mr. Chalcraft arrived from the Sound country last night with three new pupils.

Walter Miller acted his part fine last Saturday night. It shows what he can do.

A letter from Orson Bell tells us he wishes to be remembered to all old school mates.—J. S.

The blacksmith boys are busy putting a brake on a new wagon that will be sold.—S. M.

The tailor boys are now beginning to make the new uniform trousers for next spring.—G. S.

The girls were glad to see Maggie Waynaco back to school again with two other girls.—K. H.

The blacksmith boys fixed Mr. Woods's tank the other day and did some good work on it. You see the blacksmith boys are good all around.—D. R.

The blacksmiths are going to have their annual party with the wagonmakers a week from tomorrow.

The Excelsiors gave an entertainment last Saturday night. Every body enjoyed it very much.—A. S.

Tracey Johnston says: "If anybody wants his clothes mended just bring them in my room."—B. L.

Ellen Ferris is making a new dress for herself and it is going to be very pretty when it is finished.

Mr. Willmar Hartless of Grande Ronde Reservation paid his son, Martin Hartless a visit at Chemawa.—H. D.

Miss Miller and Miss Dohse went to Portland last Saturday on a business trip and returned Sunday evening.—K. B.

Martha Decker is making a very pretty blue dress, which she is very proud of and is very anxious to get it finished.

Mr. Goudge of Salem has organized a Bible class, and will teach the students of this school every Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Cleveland is soon going to plan out his farm into five and ten acre tracts and then put it on market for sale.—R. B.

Willie Fisher is working in the laundry and says he likes his work. Mrs. Brewer says he is a good worker.—G. B.

The eighth grade class started on a barn about three months ago, but owing to bad weather they are just now finishing it.

John Sortor of Fair Grounds came to the school last Saturday evening and witnessed the Excelsior's entertainment.—W. H.

Boys' Band of Mercy

The Boys' Band of Mercy held a very interesting meeting Wednesday night. Several of the boys volunteered songs and readings.