

PUPILS' ITEMS

Thomas Powers is going to work in the tailor shop.--C. S.

Jemima Tendoy, Maggie Jerry and Katie Henry are making beautiful bead belts for themselves.--R. P.

Mr. Westley returned to Chemawa, after spending a vacation with his family.--M. G.

Mrs. Olney who was here for about a month visiting her boys, has left for her home at Toppenish, Wash. --N.B.

Helen Dillstrom is a very nice house keeper. She can do any kind of house work you give her to do. --M.D.

David Bogard who has been in the hospital for some time, is out and back working in his usual place.--H. O.

Martha Andy and Alice Sam are from Fort Simcoe school and are now at Chemawa and we are all glad to see the two new girls.

The Captain and his officers are trying to improve the things in the medium sized boys' home and are getting things straightened out.--J. M.

Mrs. Darrow is doing some beautiful burnt work on wood. She has a number of things burned now. We are pleased with her success.--M. H.

The entertainment given by the members of the Excelsior Literary Society last Saturday evening was just fine. It was a good surprise, indeed, to everybody.

The Mitchell Hall boys will have a big meeting sometimes this week. The object of the meeting will be to enforce the regulations of the afore said building. --G. B. H.

The engineers are very sorry that Mr. Darrow has resigned.--W. E. G.

We are all glad to see our friend Harry Jones out and walking around after being confined in the hospital so long and we all hope he well soon be able to continue his studies again.--T. P.

In Saturday evening's entertainment Walter Miller took part. Though a slow and modest looking boy, acted his part like an old stage performer and made the old stage actors sit up and take notice.--B. W.

The officers of the Chemawa Battalion held a short meeting in the disciplinarian's office in which Chas. Larsen presided. The idea of this gathering was to promote the general welfare of the Companies.--M. J. S.

Company B was divided into four sections last Tuesday and new officers were elected: Captain, John Peazzoni; 1st Lieutenant, Peter Casey; 1st Sergeant, Sam McCush; Duty Sergeants; William Watkins, Michel Wilson, Calvin Darnell and David Graham.--J. M.

The Y. M. C. A. boys are "passing it on" that they are to have a "Fellowship Luncheon" in their new hall in the near future. There will be a program on that night by some of the members. If you want to have a lot of fun here's where you can get it. Hot hand will be all on the go.
