

PUPILS' ITEMS

Thos. Holden is janitor in the school building.

These pleasant days remind us of Spring.—C. F.

The school detail was changed last Monday.—W. F.

Miss Brown went to Portland last Saturday.—M. M.

Maggie Jerry is making a very pretty bead purse.—M. M.

We are sorry to see Mr. and Mrs. Darrow go away.—A. P. C.

Helen and Belle Dillstrom are now staying at McBride Hall.—M. L.

Katie Henry can make fine bead work. She made a belt for herself.—L. M.

After a period of cold and dreary days we are all glad to have one pleasant day.

Mrs. Cox took the dining hall girls out for a walk which was enjoyed by all.—G. C.

Alice Sam is working in the sewing room and she is doing very nice work.—A. J.

We are all glad to have Iva Kenworthy to school she is one of the new girls.—M. J.

Ellen Tobet is now working in the hospital she is doing her work very nicely.—M. J.

The harness makers enjoy Ben Wilson's cutting out and fitting harness for the boys.—E. Z.

Gussie Cameron is now working in the dining hall, she likes her work very well.—C. W.

Thos. Mullings who has been in the hospital for some time is out and back to duty.—C. R.

Why couldn't employes visit our societies once in a while and criticize our work?—P. J. S.

Every body enjoyed the band concert Saturday night, especially the song by Mr. Teabo.—D. D.

We miss Fred Irving very much while he is in hospital. We hope he will recover soon.—G. B. H.

We are all glad to see such warm and bright weather after so much rain and cold weather.—O. F.

We are having very nice weather and gives one the spring fever and makes a fellow feel like traveling.—W. B.

The Willamette river has risen a number of feet since the storm, and can be seen from the tailor-shop.—J. D.

The detail has been changed, and those who were going to school in the morning are going in the afternoon.—W. H.

Mrs. Brewer took her laundry girls to see the river Wednesday and it was indeed a wonderful sight to behold.—A. E.

Pedro Cayago is practicing a song, for he intends to join the Hiawata Club. Pedro is willing to do anything.—W. H.

The debate between the two teams of the Hiawatha Club promises to be a very careful and interesting debate.—P. J. S.

Lillie Burns said that she likes to work in the laundry whenever Mrs. Brewer is there because she can work harder.—N. C.

Apis Goudy is hard at work practicing on a violin. He is first learning to make different kinds of sounds, such as imitating a cat and a canary bird.

The O. R. & N. trains have all stopped running. The boys living up that way are very much disappointed because they cannot hear from home.—P. G.