Boys' Band of Mercy

The boys' Band of Mercy held their usual meeting Wednesday evening. The little boys practiced singing some of the songs from the chapel song books.

Nonpareil

The members of the Nonpareil postponed their regular debate last week. The reason being some members, who were on the program went to Salem for the purpose of witnessing a basketball game and those remained unailed themselves of an opportunity to attend an entertainment given by the Estelle Reel Society.

Excelsior

The Excelsior Literary Society met in their usual place. The program made for the evening was not carried out there being some of the main speakers absent, but we had the pleasure of listening to some music played by Frank Soraban and Martin Sampson. We spent the rest of the evening visiting the Estelle Reel Society in the chapel.

Estelle Reel

The Estelle Reels met in the chapel on Friday night and gave a very interesting program. The following is the program in full:

Opening Address Mattie Zimmerman
 Song Twelve Estelle Reel Girls.
 Recitation Ruth Brewer.
 Song Four Girls.
 Recitation Neva Souvigner.
 Song L. Ryan and H. Pecard.
 Piano Solo Alice Chalcraft.
 Trick Sara Brewer.
 Song S. Boswell and G. Cameron.
 Recitation Luella Ryan.
 Song Society.

Hiawatha

The Hiawatha Club members met in their usual place. Owing to the absence of President Robert Davis, Vice President Thomas McCully presided, and Peter Seltice acted as Secretary in place of Alfred Lane. After the roll was called, as it was our election day, the president called the house to order after which nomination of officers took place. It resulted as follows: President, Peter Casey; Vice President, Peter Seltice; Secretary, Gordon B. Hobucket; Treasurer, James Sloan; Sergeant-at-arms, Thomas McCully; Club reporter, Webster Hudson; Censor, Robert Davis.

After the election, we decided to select a subject for debate next Friday (tonight) which is: Resolved: That the Pen has done more good for world than the Sword. We then adjourned and witnessed the open door meeting of the Estelle Reel Society.

Y. M. C. A.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. met in their usual place, and had an interesting meeting. Pedro Cayago was admitted to our roll and was gladly received by the members. Following is the program: Song, "At the Cross;" Prayer, Albert Garry; Song, "Wait and Murmur not;" Roll call, answered by Bible verses; Song, "A Shelter in the Time of Storm;" Reading from Psalms, John Smith; Song, "To the Work," Members; Address "Beginning of Life" Harry Queachpalma and Henry Nelson; Song, "I know that My Redeemer Lives," Members; Miscellaneous Business; Song, "God be with You," Members; Closing Prayer, Webster Hudson.
