

LEFTOVER ITEMS #1

John Boyce has just finished a set of harness.—J. M.

Last Saturday our Y. M. C. A. quartet attended the Rally in Salem.

Leon Reinkin made a suit of clothes for himself which were made in a workmanlike manner.

The sewing room girls are nearly through with the second company of small girls' uniforms.

Mrs. Olney who has been here for some time has departed for her home in Yakima, Washington.

Several new members have made their appearance on the second team and have showed up strong.

The Girl's Band of Mercy met at the regular hour at their place of meeting, nearly all the members were present and had a very nice meeting.

Henry Nelson does neat work in the blacksmith shop although he has not been in the shop long; if he stays with it he will be a good blacksmith.

In a letter to the CHEMAWA AMERICAN from May Saylor we learn that she is at Boyds, Washington, but she does not say how she is getting along nor what she is doing.

Lake Labash adds another strange and unusual happening. A dog belonging to John Zelinsky having acquired the habit of jumping over the picket fence, much to the masters annoyance. In an endeavor to put a stop to this practice of the dog, Mr. Zelinsky tied a block of wood to its neck, in its next attempt to clear the fence, doggie however succeeded in getting over, but alas! the block of wood remained on the other side of the fence, and the result was, that the dog met with a horrible death by strangling.

BREVITIES

The Sunbeams held a very nice meeting Wednesday evening—S. M.

At last the Gymnasium is moved to where it will stand and will soon be on a new foundation.—F. L.

The gardeners are through pruning the prune orchard and will soon start on the apple orchard —W.M.

Mrs. Mann, on last Thursday, treated each of the tailor boys with a pie which was highly appreciated. —L.R.

We have had a little water in our school house cellar and that is all the damage the flood has done to us.

The girls are looking forward to having a good time in the old gymnasium which is slowly moving towards their play grounds.

John Boyce who is a new beginner in the harness shop has done excellent work on a set of work harness which he completed recently. He is a steady worker and seems to take much interest in his work.—B. W.

You can now see the little boys out playing baseball. You will soon notice the older boys out rounding into shape for the coming season. Our first game will be played on the first Saturday of April with the Woodburn team.

Some time ago an item appeared in the AMERICAN relating to the Mock town meetings and Municipal Government. But it seems that the boys are not taking towards organizing such a helpful and useful thing to help us when we leave to start out in life for ourselves. —P. J. S.
