

COACHES

Wednesday was a perfectly beautiful day.

Mrs. Theisz is the mess manger for February.

The teachers have sent their monthly sample lessons to the office.

Mrs. Williams who has been quite ill is now able to be up.

Water, water everywhere! Was there EVER such a winter?

One of the pet deer belonging to the school died last week.

Miss Frances Howard of Salem is temporary assistant clerk.

Mrs. Guy Hirsch of Portland visited Irene Campbell this week.

The new engineer Mr. Roy B. Perry arrived on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Chalcraft went to Portland on Wednesday on business for the school.

Ethel Parrish of the Portland High School is spending her vacation with Miss Dohae.

"Bunco" seems to be a popular game with the people of the second floor of the employes' building.

Miss Hollister has resigned her position as nurse and Miss Harold is filling the position temporarily.

There are some good singers on the boys' side of the chapel but they should sit up straight when they sing.

It was a great surprise to the pupils to see Mr. Campbell in the office Monday morning after his operation, which was a very dangerous one. It is the result of good health so follow his example boys in case of illness.

Miss Hutchinson escorted Lulu Coonskin and Ollie Larkin to Portland where they took the steamer Alliance for their home in California.

Miss Lalor has been transferred from Riverside, Cal. to fill the position of clerk, vacated by the transfer of Miss Preuss to Phoenix as teacher.

Mr. Goodge conducted the Bible Class on Sunday evening. This class is growing and is one of great interest. We hope more of our boys will join it.

Mr. Campbell went to Salem hospital on Wednesday and had a tumor removed from his shoulder by Dr. Byrd. He returned to school on Sunday and is feeling much better.

Is it the spring rains that are causing the young ladies to miss breakfast at the mess? Some are more fortunate, they get in the dining room at 7:29 A. M. just for a cup of coffee.

We have suffered very little from the severe winter at Chemawa. When you complain of the weather take up a newspaper and read of the conditions in other parts of the country.

Cards are out announcing a concert to be given by Prof. Von Jessen in Salem on Friday evening Feb. 8th. Prof. Von Jessen who is an accomplished musician and a pianoplayer of unusual skill and ability will be assisted by Mrs. Earleton Smith and Prof. Heritage of Salem.

Mr. Hatt gave us a very good talk on Sunday night. He chose for his subject "Belshazzar." He urged the boys to give up bad company, cigarettes, and every thing that lowers the morals. He told the boys to "Right about face" and leave evil, choosing the good things of this life. Will the Chemawa boys take his advice?
